Glimpse of the Event

“Mythology is a subjective truth. Every culture imagines life a certain way”

EBSB Club has organized an inter class Role Play competition for grade VII on December 28, 2022.on the theme ‘Characters from Mahabharat’. The objective of the activity was to develop the cognitive, motor, presentation and creative skills. The activity gave the students to know their culture more closely by being one of them from the epic era.. The role was enacted and the dialogues were expressed in a confident way. The budding actors showcased their talents and performed their characters using remarkable gestures, actions and dialogues. Students enthusiastically participated in the activity and showed their alluring creative skills by dressing up in the characters of Krishna, Yudhishtar, Draupadi etc.

The parameters on which the students were judged are as follows:

- Clarity of Speech
- Expression
- Use of Body Language and Delivery

The Winner of the activity was Jigyasa Asolia from VII C and second position was bagged by Ekisha of VII C.
