- To enable students to express messages or provide brief glances or stories about scenes or events.
- They will be able to include the key elements of a comic strip conveyed in a few frames through a combination of pictures, captions and dialogues.
- They will learn to highlight only the most important elements of its targeted topic.

“Creativity is experimenting, growing, taking risks, breaking rules, making mistakes and having fun.”

With home schooling now on the cards, MBS International School conducted Lingua Franca Activity ‘The Voice of the Brains’ Making a cartoon strip, for the students of grade VI. Encouraging their imaginations to flourish, the students were required to put their creativity to use in making cartoon strips using A3/A4 size sheets.

Comic Strips are the powerful teaching tools and can tell a complex story in a few images, provide comment and provide thought on events and issues in the news, give an example of vocabulary related to current trends and fads, provide easily identifiable characters to form the basis for sketches.

The students were able to organize their ideas and combine, pictures, captions and dialogues to depict humourous and creative scenes and situations. This activity enhanced their creativity and also stimulated their imagination.

Parameters/ Criteria to assess competition
