Name of the Activity: ENTITY CLUB

Spin a Yarn- Indian Folk Tales

“Story Telling is a technique for teaching children about the importance of morals and ethics through a story.”

Activity –‘Spin a Yarn’ was conducted for the students of Grade III- V with a simple goal to enable the children to experience the joy of self-expression .

Children selected their own stories and presented them with facial expressions, voice modulation and body movements so as to make the story reach out clearly to the audience.

They narrated and enacted beautiful Indian folk tales with the help of different props and conveyed the moral values like not to be greedy, unity is strength, speak the truth always, a friend in need is a friend indeed etc. to be inculcated in their day-to-day life. The confidence, eloquence and vocabulary of the participants was a treat to watch. The students of all classes exhibited an exemplary performance.
