“The heritage of the past is the seed that brings forth the harvest of the future.”

Heritage Club celebrates EBSB Week, annually to sensitise students about their culture and instil the feeling of a pride citizen of India. This year also it was celebrated from October 26, 2021 to October 29, 2021. The activity ‘Poster Making Activity’ was conducted online on December 28, 2021 for Grade VIII.

Objectives: → To encourage students to develop imaginative and creative thinking. Acquire an ability to think independently and to make rational decision in saving our national heritage.

Ms. Juliet supervised the event. By this activity students have learnt different ways of saving our heritage and bring awareness among the masses for the same.

On a whole, the activity was thoroughly enlightening and productive. Students of class VIII enthusiastically and actively participated in the activity conducted and showcased their creative temperament.
