SECTION – A
1	Read the passage and answer the following questions: Good manners are not inherited. And they don't come naturally to intelligent people. They must be learnt and practised. They are based upon the concept of consideration for others. Good manners are a necessary complement in every walk of life, especially in business. Organisations with competent and well-mannered representatives enjoy a good reputation. The morale, productivity and profits of such an organization will be high. And this, in turn, will attract more business. There is no particular place or time when a person should show or begin his elementary courtesy. Courtesy, etiquette and manners are tools that one should always carry with oneself, wherever one goes. The first step to success in life is treating others as courteously as we would wish others to treat us. a) How can one acquire good manners? b) Write two points which can help an organisation to enjoy good reputation. c) Certain basic rules must be obeyed. Which word from the passage can best replace the underlined word?
