

School Buzz

As a part of an educational and cultural exchange programme, a group of students and teachers from Experimental School of Capital Normal University Beijing, China visited JM International School, Dwarka. The ceremony began by invoking blessings from the Almighty, where the guest of honour lit the lamp of knowledge. School academic coordinator Ravinder Kaur welcomed the Chinese delegations and chief guests, SC Anand, Mr Baweja and NP Gupta. The school honoured the Chinese delegations with souvenirs as a token of gratitude. The school choir Surangini mesmerised everyone with a song.

JM International School, Dwarka

An inspiring video was also shared to enlighten the audience about the unique cultures of China and India. The ceremony concluded with a vote of thanks.

Times NIE
Date:21/3/2016