

Showcasing myriad colours of life

The junior students of J M International School, Dwarka flaunted their verve and talent on their annual day titled Umang themed on 'Colours of Life'. The show commenced with a performance by the young musicians, who enthralled the audience with their sense of rhythm and harmony. Students also displayed their creative skills in declamation, dance, storytelling, music and theatre. The finale served as the cherry on the cake with a musical enactment called 'Yeh Duniya Rang-Birangi.' Colours in the story were used metaphorically for people of different colours, castes, creeds and faiths. The event conveyed the message of believing in brotherhood and harmony.

Times NIE

Date:

11/8/2015