Dear Parent

We believe that learning a new language not only enhances communication skills but also broadens cultural understanding and global awareness. We are excited to announce the launch of two new language clubs at our school for students of classes IV-VI.

- 1. The Korean Language Club
- 2. The French Language Club

These clubs aim to provide students with an engaging and interactive environment to learn and appreciate these rich languages and cultures. It will consist of 20 extensive sessions of one hour each on Fridays to be held throughout the year. Interested students can join either club and are requested to submit the registration fee of ₹ 3500/- along with the consent form to their respective class teachers latest by 27.07.2024 (Saturday). It is purely an optional programme.

We look forward to your enthusiastic participation in these new and exciting clubs!
