

Detail Report on the 4th Day of Shiksha Saptah– Cultural Day at Shiksha Bharati Global School (25 July 2024)

The fourth day of the Shiksha Saptah celebration at Shiksha Bharati Global School was dedicated to Cultural Day, aimed at promoting and celebrating India's rich cultural diversity. This vibrant and colourful day witnessed enthusiastic participation from all students, ranging from pre-primary to class 12, showcasing their talents and cultural heritage through a variety of activities and events.

Events and Activities

1. Costume Parade:

- The day started with a magnificent costume parade, where students donned traditional attire from various regions of India. Each class represented a different state, and the students paraded in the school grounds, displaying the unique and colourful clothing styles, complete with accessories and props. This parade highlighted the diverse sartorial heritage of India and was a visual treat for all attendees.

2. Local Games:

- A section of the school grounds was dedicated to traditional local games. Students participated in games like Kho-Kho, Kabaddi, Gilli-Danda, and Lagori, among others. These games not only entertained but also educated students about the recreational activities enjoyed by children in different parts of India.

3. Painting and Craft:

In the art section, students engaged in painting and crafting traditional Indian art forms. Paintings included Warli art, Madhubani art, and Pattachitra, while the craft section featured activities such as making clay models, paper quilling, and traditional puppets. The creativity and skill of the students were on full display, and the finished artworks were exhibited around the school.

4. Dance and Songs:

- The school's auditorium was the venue for mesmerizing dance and song performances. Students performed classical dances like Bharatanatyam, Kathak, and Odissi, as well as regional folk dances like Bhangra, Garba, and Lavani. Song performances included classical renditions and folk songs from different regions, celebrating the musical diversity of India.

5. Street Plays:

- Theatrical performances were a major highlight, with students enacting folk tales, mythological stories, and social messages through street plays and skits. These performances were not only entertaining but also conveyed important cultural and ethical values, engaging the audience thoroughly.

6. Storytelling:

- Storytelling sessions were held where students narrated stories in different languages and dialects, representing India's linguistic diversity. These sessions included folk tales, moral stories, and mythological narratives, captivating the younger audience and keeping the essence of oral storytelling traditions alive.

Theme-Based Beautification

The entire school was beautifully decorated in line with the cultural theme. Display boards and classroom boards were adorned with traditional motifs, artwork, and information about various cultural aspects of India. Each classroom represented a different state, with decorations showcasing the state's heritage, festivals, and landmarks. The corridors and common areas were also embellished with colourful rangolis, ethnic decorations, and student-made crafts, creating an immersive cultural experience.

Student Participation and Talent Display

The participation level was remarkable, with every student from pre-primary to class 12 contributing to the celebrations. The younger children engaged in simpler activities like colouring traditional motifs and dressing up in regional costumes, while the older students took on more complex tasks like organizing performances and creating detailed artworks. The talent and enthusiasm displayed by the students were commendable, making Cultural Day a memorable and enriching experience for everyone involved.

Cultural Day at Shiksha Bharati Global School was a grand success, fulfilling its aim of promoting and celebrating India's cultural diversity. The variety of events and activities allowed students to explore and express their cultural heritage, fostering a sense of pride and appreciation for India's rich traditions. The day was not only educational but also filled with joy, creativity, and a deep sense of community, marking a significant highlight of the Shiksha Saptah celebrations.

