“Creativity involves breaking out of expected patterns to look at things in a different way.”

In alignment with the vision of NEP 2020 and Education 4.0 reforms, ITL Public School celebrated its 10 bagless days program as part of Skill Week on 31 July 2024. with an engaging workshop on the art and aesthetics of mosaic painting. Guided by art experts Mr. Shivraj Singh and Ms. Rachna Soni, this workshop aimed to emphasize a skill-based approach that fosters comprehensive, integrated, project-based learning and encourages an entrepreneurial mindset.

The hands-on activities allowed students to explore their creativity while mastering essential skills such as planning and patternmaking. They refined their techniques and brought their artistic visions to life, as the room buzzed with enthusiasm. Students diligently worked on their pieces, incorporating complex patterns and diverse materials to create unique and vibrant mosaics.

The sense of accomplishment and pride was evident as they proudly displayed their finished artworks. This enriching workshop deepened their understanding and appreciation of mosaic art, leaving a lasting impact and igniting a passion for artistic exploration.

Overall, the mosaic painting workshop was a resounding success, embodying the spirit of Skill Week. It inspired future artistic endeavors and highlighted the importance of creativity and hands-on learning in education.
