

19th September 2013

Chemistry Made Easier

Venue: JMIS

A chemistry workshop on organic chemical reactions, mechanisms and conversions was organized for class XII students. The workshop started with a friendly discussion about the practical and various topics. It then moved on to reaction mechanisms and their types. The mechanisms were explained with the help of presentations and various examples. The session included types of reactions and a brief focus on various important conversions of organic chemistry.