

Expert Session on Procedural Law

Date- 6th August, 2024

Venue- ATL

Resource Person- Inspector Bhupesh Kumar, SHO, Mandawali Police Station

Attended by – Legal Studies students of XI-XII and students of Class X

The expert session on Indian Procedural and Substantive Laws by Inspector Bhupesh Kumar, SHO Mandawali Police Station, offered a comprehensive overview of our legal system. The session gave a valuable insight on the three new criminal laws -Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita, Bhartiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita, and Bhartiya Sakshya Adhiniyam. He clearly brought out the difference of these new criminal laws from the ones they replaced- Indian Penal Code, Code of Criminal Procedure, and Indian Evidence Act.

Sharing interesting anecdotes from his 27 year long career, the speaker detailed the nuances of investigation and complexities of legal administration. The process of preparing a chargesheet was the highlight of the session. The extensive use of technology in the modern laws was discussed at length. He discussed the important clauses of POCSO Act, Juvenile Justice Act, among others.

Students enthusiastically interacted with the speaker about the recent developments and the challenges faced by the Police officials. The session left a profound impact on the young minds about the legal system in action.

