A Glimpse of the Event

Objectives:

- Promote Empathy and Understanding: Foster empathy and broaden perspectives among high school students regarding the challenges faced by disabled children.
- Encourage Community Engagement: Engage high school students in community service activities that support and entertain children with disabilities.
- Facilitate Personal Growth and Development: Offer high school students opportunities to develop organizational and leadership skills through interactive activities.
- Foster Creative Expression: Enable disabled children to showcase their talents and boost their confidence through various artistic activities.

"Empathy is not just about understanding someone else's struggles; it's about connecting through shared experiences and building a bridge of compassion."

On 4th September 2024, 14 high school girls from MBS International, classes XI and XII, visited NGO Sijo Social Vision in Najafgarh as a part of Good Samaritan Club Activity. The visit aimed to foster empathy and community service by engaging the students in interactive games, talent showcases, and creative sessions with disabled children. This experience not only provided the students with valuable insights and leadership skills but also boosted the confidence and self-expression of the children. The visit highlighted the importance of empathy and continued community involvement, contributing to a more socially responsible generation.
