

BRAIN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

SUBJECT: PSYCHOLOGY

CLASS – XII

OCTOBER 2024

CHAPTER 6: ATTITUDE AND SOCIAL COGNITION

1. Schemas that function in the form of categories are called..

- (a) Perceivers
- (b) Stereotypes
- (c) prototypes
- (d) None of these

2. The 'P-O-X' triangle, which represents the relationships between person, a proposed by

- (a) Fritz Heider
- (b) Festinger
- (c) S.M. Mohsin
- (d) Bernard Wiener

3. Explain "Kernel of Truth" as a source of prejudice?

4. What is attitude? Discuss its nature.

5. Explain the influence of primacy, recency and halo effects on impression formation.

6. Analyse the role of the following factors in determining pro-social behaviour

- (a) Cultural factors
- (b) Diffusion of responsibility

7. Differentiate between social facilitation and social loafing.

8. What do you mean by social cognition? What role is played by schemas in social cognition?