SECTION – A
1	Read the passage and answer the following questions: Zoos are exciting places where people can learn about animals from around the world. Zoos create environments that look like the animals’ natural habitats, giving visitors a chance to see how animals might live in the wild. Many zoos have special sections, like a reptile house for snakes and lizards or an aviary for birds. They often host shows or feedings where zookeepers share interesting facts about the animals. Zoos also help endangered animals by creating safe spaces for them to live and breed. Visiting a zoo not only provides fun but also helps people understand the importance of protecting wildlife and their homes. a) Name two special sections you might find in a zoo and describe what visitors can learn from them. Ans- _____ b) Why do zoos create environments that look like natural habitats? Ans- _____ c) Find a word from the passage that means ‘the place where an animal usually lives.’ Ans- _____	3
