

BRAIN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

English Assignment

Class: IX

December 2024

MOMENTS

CH-7: A House is Not a Home

Theme: The story highlights the importance of love, support, and human connections in overcoming loss and rebuilding one's life. It contrasts a physical structure (house) with an emotional sanctuary (home), emphasizing how relationships and community provide a sense of belonging and security, especially during difficult times.

Q. Answer the following questions.

- a. How does the narrator's experience after the fire change his perspective on home and community?
- b. What role do the narrator's classmates play in helping him feel a sense of belonging?
- c. How does the narrator learn the difference between a house and a home by the end of the story?
- d. Discuss how the narrator's experiences with loss and support reflect the importance of human connections in building a sense of home.
- e. Analyse the emotional journey of the narrator in the story and how he learns to appreciate the value of relationships and kindness.

CH-8: The Beggar

Theme: The story emphasizes the transformative power of kindness and compassion. It showcases how genuine care and second chances can bring about positive change in a person's life. Through Lushkoff's journey, the narrative underscores the importance of empathy, hard work, and self-reform in overcoming personal struggles and achieving success.

Q. Answer the following questions.

- a. What does Lushkoff's transformation reveal about the power of compassion and guidance?
- b. How does Olga's role in the story impact Lushkoff's life and his eventual success?
- c. What message does the story convey about judging people based on appearances or first impressions?
- d. Examine the relationship between Lushkoff and Olga in "The Beggar." How does her silent, persistent care contribute to his transformation?
- e. How does "The Beggar" reflect the importance of empathy and second chances in bringing positive change to someone's life?