WINTER HOLIDAYS HOMEWORK
CLASS - III
2024-25

Dear Parent
Namaskar!

Winter break is a much-anticipated time of year, filled with the joy of cozy mornings, festive celebrations, and the excitement of welcoming a new year. It's a chance to relax, spend precious moments with family and friends.

The arrival of the New Year brings a sense of renewal and inspiration, encouraging us to embrace fresh opportunities with enthusiasm. Amidst the celebrations, our school has planned range of creative project holiday that will keep our students intellectually engaged, fostering creativity, and ensuring a seamless transition back to academics. Balancing leisure and learning makes this break both refreshing and meaningful.

This is an excellent opportunity to guide your children in managing their time effectively. Encourage them to strike a healthy balance between enjoying leisure activities and fulfilling their academic responsibilities, Together, let's ensure this break is both productive and refreshing, preparing them to embrace the new term with confidence and enthusiasm.

Wishing you and your family a very HAPPY NEW YEAR!!!!

Winter

Five years ago, there were 2,500 Bengal tigers in India.

Over the years, 200 tigers were lost due to various reasons.

- How many Bengal tigers are left now?
- If efforts are made to protect the tigers and 100 more tigers are added next year, how many tigers will there be?
- Practice Geometry Chapter from Rapid fire Book.

Story time

Ritu woke up one cold winter morning and noticed a little sparrow perched on the windowsill, shivering in the cold. Curious and concerned, she called out to her mother, "Mumma, what kind of bird is that?"

"Her mother smiled sadly and said, "That's a sparrow, dear. There used to be so many of them around, but now they are becoming rare and are almost extinct." Ritu decided they must take care of the little bird and learn more about how to protect sparrows.

Creative Writing Question:

Imagine you are Ritu. Write a paragraph describing what you and your family did to help the sparrow and how it made you feel. Also, include your thoughts on why it is important to protect birds like sparrows from extinction.
