'What we know is a drop, what we don't know is an ocean.' -Isaac Newton

MBS International School organised Enacting an Advertisement Competition for the students of Class VIII on 6 November 2024 wherein the students embarked on a journey to bring abstract concepts to life through advertising. Armed with a variety of materials and boundless enthusiasm, they crafted intricate products representing various phenomena. Each presentation was a vivid exploration, with students confidently explaining their product and their underlying science. The room buzzed with innovation as they tackled challenges, integrated feedback, and refined their work. This activity not only deepened their understanding but also sparked their imagination, turning theoretical knowledge into tangible, interactive learning experiences.
