Nurturing Hearts, Enlightening Minds through the Holy Quran and Sunnah

Welcome to the Islamic Education Newsletter

Assalamu Alaikum Warahmatullahi Wabarakatuh,

Welcome to our first edition of the Islamic Education Newsletter! Through this platform, we aim to highlight the values, efforts, and progress in our department as we guide students toward holistic development through Islamic principles.

Islamic Education follows a structured curriculum developed by the Ministry of Education, based on six main themes: Divine Revelations (Quran and hadith memorization), Islamic Creed, Islamic Laws and their Purpose, Islamic Values, the Prophet's Biography, and Contemporary Issues. The goal of Islamic Education is to help students see Islam as a complete way of life. It teaches them to value their national identity, build love, unity, and teamwork with others, and take part in making their community better. It also helps them understand changes in the world, respect different cultures, and develop clear thinking and problem-solving skills to face challenges in a positive way.

Living Our Faith: Honoring Parents and Embracing 'Allah is My Lord'

Honoring Parents

Our Grade 3 students created beautiful handmade cards to honor their parents, expressing love, gratitude, and respect. Through this creative project, they reflected on the important Islamic value of being kind and dutiful to parents, as emphasized in the Qur'an and Sunnah.

Allah is my Lord

To deepen their understanding, Grade 1 students took part in a hands-on poster activity. They sorted pictures into Allah's creations and man-made creations, helping them visually appreciate the beauty and perfection of Allah's work compared to human-made objects.

Nurturing Hearts, Enlightening Minds through the Holy Quran and Sunnah

Qur'an in Action: Reflections, Recitations, and Rewards

Surah Al-Asr Reflection

Grade 2 students engaged in a meaningful Qur'an journaling activity centered on Surah Al-Asr. They reflected on the importance of time, doing good deeds, and encouraging one another to stay truthful and patient. Through drawings, notes, and personal reflections, students began to understand how even a short surah carries powerful lessons for daily life.

Honoring Our Qur'an Champions

Grade 3 students proudly memorized the first 10 verses of Surah Al-'Alaq (Iqra) and showcased their dedication and effort. In recognition of their achievement, they were awarded Qur'an Champion badges, encouraging them to continue their journey of memorization and love for the Qur'an. This accomplishment not only boosted their confidence but also deepened their connection with the words of Allah.

Surah Yaseen Reflection

Grade 8 students explored the first ten verses of Surah Yaseen, reflecting on the themes of guidance, prophethood, and the importance of sincere hearts. Through discussions, they connected the Qur'an's message to real-life lessons about faith, choices, and staying mindful in their daily lives.

Living with Purpose: Role Play on the Day of Judgement

Grade 5 students engaged in a meaningful role play activity centered on the theme of Belief in the Day of Judgement. Through powerful scenes and dialogue, they explored how this core belief shapes our behavior, choices, and sense of responsibility. The role play helped students internalize the message in a creative and impactful way.

Nasheed Musabaqah: Celebrating Islamic Heritage.

The Nasheed Musabaqah was conducted as the first Islamic event of the academic year for Grades 2-8. It aimed to promote Islamic values through spiritual vocal expression. Students were invited to perform Nasheed in Arabic or English that reflected themes such as Ramadan, Eid, gratitude, love for Allah (SWT), and kindness.

The competition enhanced students' confidence, strengthened their spiritual connection, and created a sense of unity and celebration. It successfully combined cultural appreciation with creative expression, leaving a lasting impact on both participants and audience.
