The event, named ‘Bhav Nikunj’ held on May 7, 2025, aimed to cultivate a deep appreciation for Hindi literature and inspire young minds with Tagore's timeless wisdom and boundless creativity.

The day was filled with a diverse array of activities designed to engage and enlighten. Our youngest participants captivated audiences with their expressive renditions of Tagore's poems and showcased their artistic flair by beautifully adorning his name in their sketch files.

Budding musicians presented a melodious tribute through their renditions of Tagore's compositions, filling the classrooms with a culturally rich atmosphere. Meanwhile, another group of students channeled their creativity into designing exquisite bookmarks featuring inspiring quotes from the literary giant, prompting reflection on his powerful words.

Our older students demonstrated their deep understanding and admiration for Tagore's Nobel-winning work by creating dynamic collages. These vibrant displays visually depicted his extensive literary contributions, drawing inspiration from his poems, books, and songs.

The celebration served as a powerful testament to Tagore's enduring impact on literature, music, and education.
