FROM THE CHAIRMAN'S DESK:

Dear Readers,

A Journey Towards Excellence!

As Chairman, it is with great pride that I share with you the progress we are making together. We are living in times of immense change and unprecedented opportunities, and our collective journey has been nothing short of remarkable. Each day brings new challenges, but with every challenge comes the potential for growth, innovation, and success.

Our commitment to excellence remains at the core of everything we do. Whether it's delivering world-class services, building cutting-edge products, or fostering a culture of collaboration and integrity, we continue to push boundaries and set new standards. The strength of our organization lies not only in our accomplishments but in the dedication, creativity, and passion of every individual involved.

At this pivotal moment, I encourage all of us to reflect on the values that guide us. Resilience, adaptability, and a relentless pursuit of progress will ensure that we remain at the forefront of our industry. Our shared vision is bold, and our aspirations are high, but I am confident that, together, we can achieve even greater heights. The road ahead is bright, and I look forward to the continued success we will build as one team. Let us move forward with unwavering determination, inspired by the possibilities of tomorrow and strengthened by the achievements of today.

Thank you for being an essential part of this journey. Together, we are shaping a future filled with promise and potential.

With warm regards

R B Gupta

Chairman

VICE CHAIRMAN'S NOTE

Dear Readers,

Embracing Growth and Innovation

As we turn the pages of this issue of 'Inner Beam' 2024, I am filled with immense joy for the incredible strides we have made together. Our journey has been marked by a steadfast commitment to growth, innovation, and excellence in every facet of our educational environment.

At JM International School, we believe in nurturing not just academic brilliance but also the holistic development of each student. This vision has been brought to life through our dynamic classroom engagement initiatives, pioneering programs, and a collective passion for excellence.

Our recent accolades and achievements, from being recognized among the Top Schools in Dwarka to receiving awards for our unique classroom strategies, are a testament to the hard work and dedication of our entire school community. These milestones reflect our unwavering pursuit of creating an enriching learning experience and fostering an environment where every student can thrive.

As we continue to embrace new challenges and opportunities, let us remain steadfast in our mission to inspire, educate, and empower ourselves. Together, we are shaping the future, one student at a time, and making a lasting impact on our community.

Thank you for your continued support and dedication. Here's to celebrating our achievements and looking forward to many more milestones ahead.

*Warm regards,
Yogesh Gupta
Vice Chairman*

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

'Fostering Curiosity and Instilling a Passion for Learning'

Dear Readers,

As we explore the latest edition of 'Inner Beam' 2024, I am excited to reflect on our journey of fostering curiosity and instilling a lifelong love for learning within our school community. At JM International School, we believe that curiosity is the cornerstone of education, and nurturing this innate curiosity is essential for empowering our students to become innovative thinkers and passionate learners.

Our approach to education goes beyond traditional teaching methods. We are dedicated to creating an environment where students are encouraged to ask questions, seek answers, and explore new ideas with enthusiasm. By integrating innovative teaching practices and dynamic learning experiences, we strive to make education a journey of discovery and excitement. The achievements and accolades we celebrate in this issue are a testament to the vibrant and inquisitive spirit that defines our school. Whether through groundbreaking classroom initiatives or our commitment to holistic development, we are continuously working to inspire our students to embrace learning with curiosity and vigor.

We are shaping a future where learning is not just an obligation but a joyful and enriching experience.

*Warmest regards,
Dr. Amita Saxena
Principal*

EDITOR'S CORNER

Dear ever-evolving readers,

Welcome to this issue of 'Inner Beam' 2024, where we're not just turning pages, but flipping through a whirlwind of wit, wisdom, and wonderful classroom antics! As we dive into the latest stories and achievements from our vibrant school community, remember: learning doesn't have to be all work and no play.

In this special edition, we're celebrating the remarkable curiosity of our students—and, let's face it, their never-ending quest for answers to the most delightfully quirky questions. Who knew that asking "Why does the sun shine?" could lead to a deep discussion about solar energy and a few hilarious attempts at recreating sunspots in the science lab?

Our educators have mastered the art of blending humor with education, turning each lesson into an adventure that keeps our students engaged and excited. Because, as we all know, a good laugh often paves the way for a great learning experience.

So, as you read through these pages, let's embrace the joy of discovery and the fun of learning. Whether it's a witty classroom anecdote or a serious achievement, let's celebrate it all with the enthusiasm and humor it deserves.

Enjoy the read- a world where curiosity and fun go hand in hand!

Warmly,

Editorial Team

JM International School celebrates Anveshan and Environment Week

Students were encouraged to delve deeper into the realms of Science through discoveries, inventions, and innovations by doing hands-on experiments and also inspired to nurture nature.

Under the guidance and motivation of school principal Amita Saxena, various activities were conducted during the entire week. The main objective of celebrating the week was to develop the scientific spirit among the students and to encourage them to adopt scientific methods as a way of life. The school buzzed with the message that Science is a way of discovering what's in the universe and how those things work today.

Quizzes were conducted on one of the concurrent themes, 'Conserve Environment' to instill understanding among students to conserve Mother Nature and enhance reasoning and analytical skills.

The week-long celebration saw the enthusiastic participation of students in a wide range of activities such as Seed ball drive, Poster making on 3Rs, Alternative Sources of Energy,

Waste management and Sustainable Development goals, PPTs by students on contribution of eminent environmentalists to conserve nature, compost pit preparation and fun experiments of Science.

It was fascinating to observe young minds working together with great spirit and scientific temperament. The best performances in these activities, were given token of appreciation by the principal at the end of this exciting Science week.

Incomparable views astounded me at Rajgir, Bihar

Rajgir, the place that I visited this vacation was no less than a dreamland. A beautiful city positioned in the Nalanda District in the state of Bihar, it entices the attention of the tourists from all over the globe. The place is enveloped by rocky hillocks and is placed in a valley.

I was excited to visit this place as I have heard about many folklores, tourist attraction like glass bridge, Shanti Stupa etc. The resort that I booked was near Satdhara & Bhram Kund. I enjoyed the Nature and Jungle Safari as it showcased the Wildlife Sanctuary, which provides incomparable views of the surrounding forest area and was the most interesting, as it was the first time that I got a chance to see a lion and tiger so close, at a distance of half a meter. I also enjoyed the ropeway that gives access to the Buddhist relics and constructions of a bygone era on the hilltop, coupled with charming views, there's nothing more you can ask for!

ANKUR

ENRICHMENT ACTIVITIES

Grade Ankur has conducted a series of engaging enrichment activities that focused on both cognitive and motor skills development. The children participated in a variety of hands-on learning experiences, such as capturing their first day in school through photographs in the “Seize a Capture” activity, confidently reciting rhymes like “I’m Special” and “Ek Billi Humari” in public speaking sessions, and exploring shapes through activities like “Walk Along the Shape” and sorting objects by size and color. Other activities included creating smiley faces with bindis, learning about hygiene through the “Messy Monster” activity, and experimenting with the volcanic eruption model. The children also enjoyed the wristband activity, where they learned about the color red, as well as exploring scientific concepts like solubility and the sensory “I Spy with My Nose.” Cultural learning was incorporated through the “Gandhinama” activity, where children dressed as Mahatma Gandhi and participated in a Dandi March. Through these diverse activities, the students showed active participation, creativity, and a genuine enthusiasm for learning.

PALLAV

ENRICHMENT ACTIVITIES

Grade Pallav engaged in a variety of enriching, activity-based learning experiences designed to foster creativity, confidence, and social skills. Through hands-on activities, students learn at their own pace, participating in activities like "Greet & Meet" for the Welcome activity, "Book Balancing" during Science Hour, and "Walk Like Animal" in skill-building exercises. Celebrations such as Earth Day and Mother's Day allowed children to express gratitude and gain a deeper understanding of important social events. Public speaking was another key area of focus, with children confidently reciting Hindi and English rhymes. Art Integrated Learning was highlighted through creative activities like "Number Art," while "Magic Box" under Young Explorers engaged children's curiosity and problem-solving abilities. These interactive learning activities not only helped in the development of cognitive and motor skills but also in fostering teamwork, communication, and emotional intelligence, ensuring the students stayed positively occupied and fully involved in their learning journey.

GRADE I

ENRICHMENT ACTIVITIES

Grade I students participated in activities that boosted creativity, confidence, and learning. They acted out characters in Dumb Charades, improved coordination in Throw a Ball, and expressed themselves through Finger Puppets. Hindi Recitation and Public Speaking activities like the Friendship Poem and Declamation on My Teacher enhanced communication skills. The Mother's Day Activity showed artistic talent, while the Plants Are Our Best Friends and Salad Activity taught healthy habits. Matra Activity and Skip Counting strengthened vocabulary and pattern recognition. Sound of Objects improved focus, and the Hindi Declamation on Independence Day deepened their understanding of the event.

GRADE II

ENRICHMENT ACTIVITIES

Grade II students participated in activities that enhanced their cognitive, creative, and motor skills. They learned number values, practiced alphabetical order, and improved fine motor skills through Thumb Printing. Public speaking was boosted with poems, and Earth Day raised environmental awareness. Math skills grew with Addition and Division activities, while creative tasks like Pasting and Leaf Printing developed motor skills. The Food Groups Activity promoted healthy eating, and Constitution Day deepened their understanding of national values

GRADE III

ENRICHMENT ACTIVITIES

Grade III students engaged in dynamic activities that boosted creativity, cognitive growth, and skills. They improved public speaking and dialogue delivery through Role Play, enhanced vocabulary with Adjective Advertisements, and retold the Akbar and Birbal story through comic strips. Poem Recitation helped with language skills, while an EVS Symposium promoted teamwork and research. The Movement of Earth activity explained day-night cycles and seasons, and Leaf Explorers and Collage Making nurtured creativity. Weather Vane crafting taught about wind direction. In math, students practiced operations with Number Cards, learned time with a 3D Clock Model, and visualized fractions with Origami. Kidney Beans reinforced multiplication. These activities fostered curiosity and a deeper understanding of various subjects.

GRADE IV

HEALTHY SCREEN TIME

Healthy screen time keeps our eyes and body feel good. It helps us sleep better by avoiding screen use before bed. Balancing screen time with outdoor activities keeps us active. It ensures we have time for hobbies and face-to-face interactions. Too much screen time can cause headaches and fatigue. Limiting screen time helps us focus better on tasks. It encourages healthier lifestyle overall. Taking breaks from screens prevents eye strain and posture problems. Healthy screen habits promote mental well-being and creativity. Finding a balance ensures we enjoy technology without it controlling our lives.

Kaustav Chauhan

IV- ARAVALI

Healthy screen time involves setting limits on electronic device usage, balancing it with physical activity, and engaging in interactive and educational activities. It's about using technology in a limit, taking breaks. Limiting watching screens before bedtime promotes sound sleep.

Navtej

IV- Aravali

Screen time can be fun and educational if we use it wisely. Healthy screen time means balancing the time we spend on screens with other activities.

It's good to take breaks, play outside, and spend time with family and friends. When we use screens for learning, like watching educational videos or playing educational games, it can be beneficial. But it's important not to spend too much time on screens and to follow our parents' rules.

GRADE IV

Let's enjoy screen time in a healthy way!

Tanvi

IV- Nilgiri

Healthy screen time refers to time which one needs to spend watching screen in order to have a healthy mind and body. One should fix a particular time that he should spend on the screen. Screen time should be something positive and constructive.

Shreyan Rao

IV-Shivalik

The amount of time modern children spend in front of screens is staggering and alarming. Not only does their eyesight suffer because of the excessive pressure, but their social life is also damaged as they circumscribe their own abilities to interact with other children. Children lack the adult perspective to recognize the danger, which is why their screen time should be restricted. Ultimately, children's screen time should be limited because it damages them physically and decapitates their social abilities.

TIPS FOR SUSTAINABLE LIVING IN SCHOOL

"In the vibrant world of education, fostering sustainability is the key to a thriving future. From recycling initiatives to energy conservation projects, schools can empower students to embrace eco-friendly practices. Integrate sustainable living into the curriculum, cultivating a consciousness that transcends the classroom. By instilling the values of reduce, reuse, and recycle, educational institutions become powerful agents of positive change. Through sustainable initiatives, schools not only nurture responsible citizens but also contribute to a healthier planet. It's not just a lesson; it's a commitment to a sustainable legacy."

Nature is everything around us. We all depend on nature for everything we do. It provides us with essentials that keep us alive.

Despite its crucial importance, we degrade nature due to our greed. Since humans have been depleting its resources as if there were no tomorrow. Human activities like animals, cutting down trees, releasing harmful gases, and polluting rivers are taking a toll on the natural world. To help preserve nature, we should plant more and more trees and support afforestation.

Sarthak Rawat

Cinderella

Cinderella, a timeless tale of hope and transformation, tells the story of a young girl who rises above her circumstances to find true love and happiness. Despite being reduced to a life of servitude by her wicked stepmother and stepsisters, Cinderella's kindness, grace, and beauty shine through. With the help of her fairy godmother, she attends the prince's ball, capturing his heart. Her journey reminds us that 'true beauty comes from within, and that with courage and perseverance, even the most unlikely dreams can come true'.

Women Empowerment

"Empowerment of a women leads to development of a good family, good society and ultimately a good nation" by Dr. A P J Abdul kalam.

Women empowerment is the act of granting women equal rights and opportunities in society. It is a widely discussed concept in today's world, focusing on the upliftment of the female gender.

Domestic violence against women has been prevalent, the traditional superiority of men over women is being dismantled through empowerment.

Women possess immense patience and effort, which can significantly contribute to the development of their country.

GRADE (VI-VIII)

When given the right support, women have excelled in every field. In India, for example, women have successfully taken on diverse roles, from Prime Minister to astronaut, entrepreneur, and many more. Additionally, women are often considered the backbone of a family. They manage domestic chores, nurture children, and handle multiple responsibilities, demonstrating remarkable multitasking abilities.

We need to boost their confidence and empower them to make their own decisions at every stage of life. This is how we can work towards achieving women empowerment.

MIND MATTERS

'To fall in love with yourself is the first secret to happiness.'

When you have a strong sense of self-love, you understand your own value and treat yourself in a loving way. Despite what the perfectionists think, loving yourself doesn't mean that you don't hold yourself to a high standard. Without being optimistic towards ourselves, we may find it hard to be motivated. Many studies suggest that we need self-love in order to take action, take chances, and welcome new opportunities in life.

SELF-LOVE

Self-love means accepting yourself entirely. It involves embracing both the good and the bad aspects of yourself, and appreciating them. Improving your mental well-being, caring for your health, and pursuing what you love are all integral parts of self-love.

A crucial aspect of self-love is avoiding comparisons with others. When you compare yourself to someone else, you will always find flaws. In the process of trying to change these perceived flaws, you risk altering who you truly are and losing your authentic self.

It is important to remember that perfection is unattainable—not for you, not for me, and not even for those who appear perfect! We should love ourselves as we are because attempting to change ourselves excessively is not self-love; it is merely evading our true selves.

“Self-love is like a cup of tea in the evening; without it, you feel empty.”

Self-love is an act of honoring your own needs and desires. It's about taking time for self-care and nurturing your physical, emotional, and mental health. Anger can often be seen as a manifestation of the ego. It undermines our health and can ruin even the happiest moments. When we reflect on how harshly we have scolded or expressed our anger, we may realize the significant impact it may have had on others. This approach is not pragmatic, as it ultimately causes us suffering and leads to side effects such as increased anxiety and blood pressure.

The best way to protect ourselves from the adverse effects of anger is through meditation and emotional control. Even when we feel the urge to yell, we should strive to ignore it, forgive, and maintain composure.

Aadya Bajpai

VI A

Anger is an emotion that everyone experiences at some point. It is an innate quality in every human. Only some people can manage their anger effectively, and those individuals are quite rare. Anger can cause a person to lose their composure and react irrationally, which may have long-lasting effects.

Controlling anger is challenging, but it is not impossible. To manage anger, we need to remain composed and learn to forgive others. It might not always be easy to stay calm, but remember that it is better to forgive than to regret. Giving in to anger and reacting unwisely can lead to more trouble.

To control anger, we must practice patience and tolerance. These qualities are remarkable and represent wise actions when we are angry. By remaining patient, we can avoid making reckless decisions and actions.

In today's fast paced world, time is a precious resource that we often find ourselves struggling for. Balancing hectic school and extra curricular work schedules along with some time for leisure activities become troublesome. However, mastering the art of time management allows us to regain control over our schedule and maximize our productivity.

To achieve success in the art of time management, one must be clear with their goals and priorities. A well structured schedule or time table must be created in which regular breaks must be added in order to avoid overworking. One must learn to say no, often trying to help someone out of kindness leads to a hectic day as one's own work efficiency is affected. Multitasking must be avoided, instead one must identify the key tasks that yield the best results and prioritize them. One must remember that time is a finite resource, and how it is chosen to be managed makes the difference in achieving success in life.

IDEALISM VS REALISM

Two opposing worldviews that influence how we perceive the world are idealism and realism. Idealists frequently have a positive outlook on life, highlighting the importance of ideas, morals, and the possibility of good change. 'Wake up call against patriarchy'

Patriarchy, a system that has dominated societies for centuries, is facing an awakening. It's time to sound the alarm against patriarchy. This social system imposes gender norms that decide how men and women should behave, and gives power and dominance to the males. As a result, toxic masculinity, a product of patriarchy, encourages men to follow the rigid ideals of manhood and distance themselves from so called "feminine" traits. This eventually affects women's rights and equality. In this case, women empowerment is a crucial step to ensure their safety, respect their choices and support them. Furthermore, the wake up call against patriarchy is a crucial demand for transformation. It aims to eradicate a system of injustice and in turn, promote the values of dignity and freedom of all individuals irrespective of their gender.

MIND MATTERS

Body Image and Self Esteem

Body image is the mental picture we have of our body and how we see ourselves. Whereas self esteem is how we value and respect ourselves as a person. In today's time, people are very much concerned about their beauty and looks. One should feel happy the way they are, as nobody is perfect in this ordinary world.

Bullying is an act of teasing or harassing someone, whether it is verbally, non verbally or done on an online mode. Bullying is the most common in schools among the students, and now has taken the form of Cyber Bullying. It is emerging as a big threat in upcoming times and is common in youth due to Social Media.

Let's not become the victims but act as active citizens of our country!

Body Image and Self Esteem,

*I don't know what it feels to have a perfect body,
Where having these lungs which keep breathing in,
Suffocate on the idea that 'I Am Not Enough'!*

*Because to know that you are loved and feel loved;
Are not the same, maybe not my cup of tea!*

*Life seems to be unfair,
Things seem complicated, Self-worth seems to be burning,
Efforts turn out worthless!*

Loving myself has never been this 'hard'

GRADE (IX-XII)

*Pampering myself has never been this 'hard'
Finding myself amidst in the sea of chaos & noise
Looking for something, I already was!!*

Mind Matters: Dealing With Stress

In the bustling world of academia, it's easy to get lost in the whirlwind of assignments, exams, and extracurricular activities. Amidst this chaos, our mental well-being often takes a back seat. It's essential to recognize the signs of stress and equip ourselves with coping mechanisms. From mindfulness techniques to seeking support from friends and teachers, there are myriad ways to alleviate stress. Remember, taking care of your mental health is as important as acing your exams. Let's foster a supportive environment where everyone's wellbeing truly matters.

*When it's your friend, you're at ease, it's true,
But when it's your foe, it drains the best of you.
Stress! The weight we carry in our mind,
In this struggle, the strength of our thoughts we find.*

*Make stress your comrade, not your foe,
For it's a part of life that all must know.
In balance, it can fuel your inner fire,
Yet unbridled, it may consume your entire desire.*

*Embrace the storm, don't let it weigh you down,
Turn it around, make it your golden crown.
Take a breath, release what no longer serves,
And soon, serenity, your restless mind deserves.*

In nature's beauty, find solace and peace,

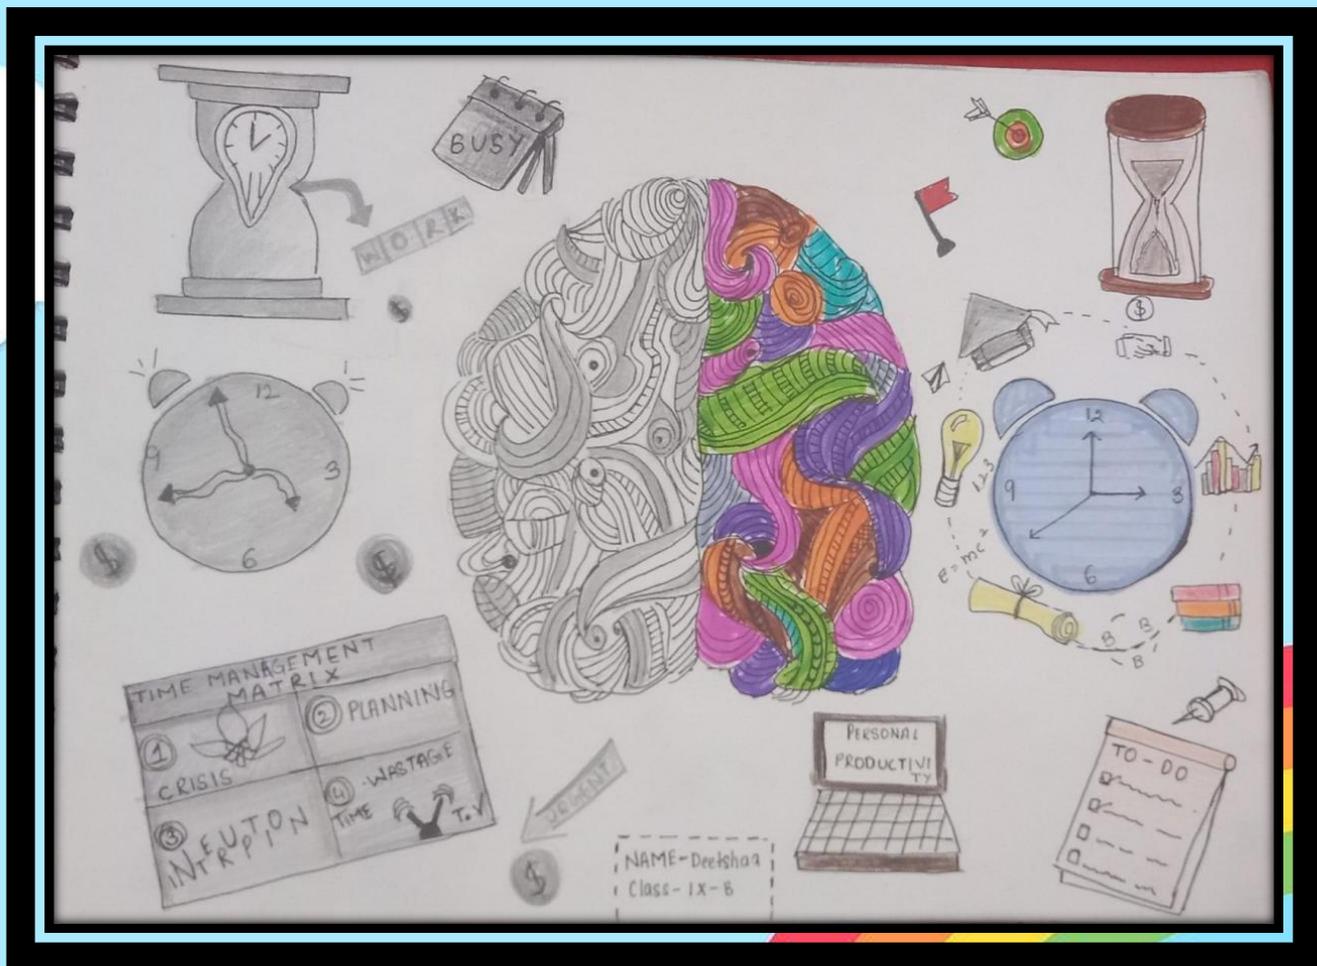

GRADE (IX-XII)

*Let worries and troubles finally cease.
Meditate and laughter, as allies true,
Nurture your mind, and it will nurture you.*

*Remember, my friend, in this life's grand plan,
The power to conquer stress lies in your own hand.
In the end, we see, it's true, mind matters the most!
For within its realm, our struggles are embossed.*
