NAME: _____

DATE: _____

LITERATURE

CH 9: THE LAND OF STORY BOOKS

Q1. How does the poet use imagination to turn his home into an adventurous world, and what does this show about the power of stories and imagination?

Q2. How does the poem show the difference between how adults and children spend their free time, and what does it reveal about them?

CH 10: A DAY IN THE GREENS

Q3. Describe how the children's behaviour changed after spending a day in the greens. Compare this to how Heidi felt when she lived in the Alps. What does this tell us about the effect of nature on our mood and attitude?

Q4. Based on your reading of the chapter, comment on the slow, nature-paced life of the countryside in contrast to the city life.

CH 11: UNDERGROUND

Q5. What do the lines about the fork or spade tell us about how human activity affects the underground world? How do you think this impacts nature?

Q6. How does the poet make the underground world seem interesting and full of life? What pictures or ideas help you see it clearly?
