The quiz aimed to enhance students’ awareness and understanding of social science concepts and current affairs through fun and interactive learning.

The event was structured in three rounds — Preliminary, Semi-final, and Final.

In the Preliminary Round, teams attempted a written set of multiple-choice questions to qualify for the next stage. The Semi-final Round featured a rapid-fire session, testing students’ presence of mind and quick recall. The Final Round included visual and audio-based questions, such as identifying historical personalities, monuments, and important current events through pictures and visual round.

Participants formed teams of six members each and showcased their teamwork, subject knowledge, and confidence. The quizmaster ensured smooth conduct, clarity of rules, and time management throughout the event. Points were recorded meticulously to ensure fair play.
