“There is nothing in the world so irresistibly contagious as laughter and good humor.”— Charles Dickens

The Hindi Lingua Franca Club of the school conducted a Kavita Vachan Inter-class Competition for the students of Class III in the school premises on the theme ‘□□□□’ (Humour). The students not only recited funny and clever poems but also enhanced their performances with expressive props and lively actions.

Each participant brought their humorous verses to life using creative elements — from oversized glasses, playful hats, and cardboard moustaches to exaggerated gestures and comedic expressions. Some students mimicked funny characters, used silly voices, or enacted amusing situations described in their poems, leaving the audience in fits of laughter. These props and performances added charm and vibrancy, helping convey the comic tone and enhancing the audience's enjoyment.

This competition not only gave students an opportunity to showcase their poetic flair but also emphasized the joy of laughter, wit and creative confidence.
