The English Lingua Franca Club, at MBS International School organised a warm and expressive Gratitude Card Making Activity for the students of Class VI to celebrate Mother's Day, on 7 May 2025, . The activity aimed to encourage students to explore the power of gratitude, emotional expression, and creative communication through handmade cards. Students were guided to reflect on their bond with their mothers and express their feelings using thoughtful words, drawings, and vibrant visual elements. Each card was crafted with heartfelt messages, personal touches, and artistic designs, showcasing the students' sincere appreciation and love.

From colorful illustrations and hand-written notes to short poems and decorative elements, every card was a unique tribute, reflecting the individuality and creativity of its maker. The integration of language and art encouraged students to think deeply and communicate meaningfully.

The activity witnessed enthusiastic participation, with students pouring their emotions into their work. Teachers and mentors appreciated the honesty, imagination, and effort behind each card. The event also fostered a sense of empathy, emotional intelligence, and self-expression at a formative stage.

The Gratitude Card Making Activity was a heartwarming success, highlighting the importance of emotional articulation and appreciation in young learners. It empowered students to express love and gratitude through creative means—laying the foundation for confident and compassionate communication.
