SRIJAN Science Championship (2.0)

The Srijan Science Exhibition, organised by Pratap International School, Kanpur on 8th November, turned the campus into a vibrant hub of innovation and scientific curiosity.

The event was graced by esteemed Chief Guests — Professor Dr. Sanjeev Kumar, Dean, International Students' Affairs, HBTU Kanpur; Dr. Rashi Agarwal, Professor, Department of Computer Science & Engineering; and Dr. Renu Singh Gehlot, renowned gynaecologist of Kanpur.

Their presence added great value as they interacted with students and appreciated their scientific temper. The exhibition showcased a wide range of creative models and experiments prepared by students from various schools.

The atmosphere buzzed with excitement as young innovators confidently explained their ideas, making the event a memorable blend of learning, exploration, and inspiration.

Children's Day Celebration

The school celebrated Children's Day with great joy and enthusiasm, filling the campus with smiles and excitement. A special assembly was conducted by the teachers, highlighting the life and values of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, making the day meaningful and inspiring for the students. Teachers also presented cultural performances, adding charm and warmth to the celebration.

To make the day even more memorable, a friendly cricket match was organised by the male staff members, which students enjoyed watching with great excitement. Children were also given beautiful cards and small tokens of love by their teachers as a gesture of affection and appreciation.

The entire programme aimed to make students feel valued, loved, and celebrated, creating unforgettable moments and strengthening the bond between teachers and learners.

KSS Story Telling Competition

The KSS Inter-House Story Telling Competition for students up to Class V was organised on 22nd November by Pratap International School. The event brought together enthusiastic young storytellers, with participation from various schools, making the competition lively and engaging.

Students confidently narrated their stories using expressive voices, gestures, and creativity, showcasing strong imagination and developing communication skills.

The competition provided a wonderful platform for early learners to build confidence and present their storytelling talent, earning appreciation from teachers, judges, and the audience.

Inter house KhoKho girls Competition

The Inter-House Kho-Kho Competition for Girls was organised by Pratap International School on 28th November 2025, showcasing remarkable energy and team spirit.

The final match was played between Nishtha House and Dharma House, with both teams displaying excellent agility, strategy, and coordination. In the end, Nishtha House emerged as the winner, securing a well-deserved victory.

The competition encouraged active participation in sports and highlighted the importance of fitness, discipline, and teamwork among students.
