

A DAY OF HONEST REFLECTIONS

ACTIVITY: Virtue Week - Honesty Tuesday

DATE: 2 December 2025

CONDUCTED BY: Class 5A

Today, the students of Class V A explored the virtue of Honesty through engaging stories, reflective discussions, and creative role-play activities.

The session began with inspiring short stories that highlighted the value of truthfulness. Students eagerly participated, sharing real-life moments where honesty helped them solve a problem or strengthened trust with others. Their confidence and sincerity added great depth to the discussion.

In the drama-skit segment, students worked in groups to present situations where telling the truth was challenging but necessary. Their expressive performances, teamwork, and thoughtful interpretations clearly showed their understanding of honesty in everyday life.

During Question Time, students reflected on the thought-provoking question—“Is it ever okay to lie?” Their responses demonstrated maturity and a growing awareness of how honesty shapes responsible and trustworthy individuals.

Honesty Tuesday was filled with meaningful learning, creativity, and heartfelt sharing. The activities reinforced the importance of being truthful and reminded students that honesty is a virtue that guides character and relationships.
