WINTER HOLIDAY HOMEWORK

GRADE - II

SESSION 2025-26

"Learning never stops, it only takes a joyful pause."

The long-awaited winter vacation is finally here, bringing with it the precious gift of togetherness. It is a time to relax, cherish family moments, and explore learning in a fun and creative way. The holiday homework has been thoughtfully designed to help children revise key concepts, think creatively, and learn through simple, enjoyable activities. Let this break be a beautiful blend of rest, play, and learning, where every task becomes a joyful experience.

As we step into this break, let us leave the past behind and look forward with renewed hopes and aspirations. BIS wishes that the coming year brings relief, joy, peace, happiness, and a fresh beginning for all.

Dear Parents

Kindly follow these suggestions to make learning fun, meaningful, and engaging:

- Encourage your ward to converse confidently in English at home to improve fluency and expression.
- Nurture strong reading habits by motivating your child to read age-appropriate storybooks regularly.
- After finishing a story, engage your child in meaningful discussions to check understanding and encourage expression of ideas.
- Practice word building and picture reading activities to enhance vocabulary, observation skills, and overall communication.
- The worksheets provided are thoughtfully designed to offer students opportunities to brainstorm, think creatively, and engage in critical thinking.
