

Brain International School

Vikas Puri, New Delhi

REVISION SHEET

SUBJECT: ENGLISH

CLASS- VIII

ANNUAL EXAM

LITERATURE

Q1. Read the extract and answer the following questions.

I) "The Rocket was very damp, so he took a long time to burn. At last, however, the fire caught him. 'Now I am going off!' he cried, and he made himself very stiff and straight. I know I shall go much higher than the stars, much higher than the moon, much higher than the sun. In fact, I shall go so high that- 'Fizz! Fizz! Fizz!' and he went straight up into the air.

*'Delightful!' he cried, 'I shall go on like this forever.
What a success I am!'*

But nobody saw him. Not even the boys. They were fast asleep."

- a) What does the Rocket's statement, "I shall go on like this for ever," indicate about his character?
- i) His inflated sense of invincibility and self-importance
  - ii) His belief in his unique purpose despite external indifference
  - iii) His fear of losing relevance once his moment is over
  - iv) His longing to outshine the moon and stars.
- b) What is ironic about the Rocket declaring himself a success?
- c) What theme does Wilde convey through the Rocket's failure to be noticed?

II)

*"He has his Summer, when luxuriously
Spring's honied cud of youthful thought he loves
To ruminate, and by such dreaming high
Is nearest unto heaven."*

- a) What does "ruminate" mean in this context?
- b) Why does the poet say man is "nearest unto heaven" during this stage?
- c) Identify the poetic device in "Spring's honied cud of youthful thought."

III) “What is life but a series of inspired follies? Can I do it? Never lose a chance. I shall make a duchess of this plebeian.”

- a) Who is the speaker here? In what situation are these words spoken?
- b) What does the speaker mean by “inspired follies”?
- c) What do these lines reveal about the speaker’s character?

Q2. Answer the following questions in 40-50 words.

- a) Analyse how Vera’s imaginative storytelling in ‘The Open Window’ contributes to creating an unexpected twist in the plot.
- b) What does the podcast Journey to the Sundarbans intimate about Royal Bengal tigers.
- c) In ‘The Way Through the Woods’, how does Kipling use the imagery of the vanished road to evoke a sense of mystery?
- d) Assess the role of the printing press as described in ‘From Storytelling to Film-making,’ and explain its impact on storytelling.
- e) How does George Bernard Shaw use humour and satire in ‘A Comedy of Manners’ to critique societal norms?
- f) Why has Framton Nuttel come to the rural retreat in the chapter ‘The Open Window’? Do you think he was doubtful that formal visits to total strangers would help him?
- g) Why do you think it is important for human beings to tell stories? Explain with reference to the chapter ‘From Storytelling to Film-making,’
- h) Why did the rocket feel that its companions were hollow and empty in the chapter ‘A Remarkable Rocket’?
- i) When is a man robust and free from all the worries of his life, according to the poem ‘The Human Seasons’? How does the poet convey this?
- j) What does Higgins’ reaction to Eliza’s new appearance reveal about his character in the chapter ‘A Comedy of Manners’?

Q.3. Answer the following questions in 100-120 words.

- a) In ‘A Remarkable Rocket,’ how does Oscar Wilde use satire to expose the flaws of arrogance and the need for humility? Quote example for the same.
- b) Explore the philosophical message in ‘The Human Seasons’. How does Keats use metaphors to portray the inevitability of life’s progression?
- c) “There is no prettiness here to invite the stranger in!” Why do you think the novelist Amitav Ghosh writes this in his book? Explain the sentence with instances from the podcast ‘Journey to the Sundarbans’.
- d) In ‘The Way Through the Woods’, analyse how Kipling contrasts the past and present to highlight the themes of loss and change.
- e) According to Vera, what tragedy had befallen Mrs Sappleton three years ago? Elucidate with reference to the chapter ‘The Open Window.’

GRAMMAR

Q1. Change the voice of the following sentences.

- a) Keep the classroom neat and tidy.
- b) Taruna is throwing a bachelorette party for her friend.
- c) Eliza spoke the words clearly and confidently.
- d) The class monitor scolded the class when the teacher was out.

Q2. Convert the sentences into indirect speech:

- a) Tarun said, "I had done my entire task."
- b) I told my friends, "I will be planting a new plant in the park tomorrow."
- c) Mahesh said, "Do you have any objection to my proposal?"
- d) Lalita said to Mona, "Concentrate on your studies if you want to pass."

Q3. Fill in the blanks with appropriate form of the verbs given in the bracket.

- a) Reema and Manju _____ buying clothes online. (prefers/prefer)
- b) None of these ladies _____ up when it comes to traditional parties. (shows/show)
- c) Whether Ranjan or Dimple _____ responsible for the accident. (was/were)
- d) The number of children attending the party _____. (is/are)

Q4. Choose the correct modal verb from the brackets:

- a) You _____ (can / must) wear a helmet while riding a bike.
- b) She _____ (might / must) be late because of the traffic.
- c) We _____ (should / could) help the poor and needy.
- d) _____ you please open the window? (Can / Must)

Q5. Fill in the blanks with suitable adverbs out of the verbs given in the brackets.

- a) They debated the topic _____ (fierce), refusing to back down from their positions.
- b) The project was completed _____ (efficient) despite limited resources.
- c) He approached the problem _____ (methodical) to ensure accuracy.
- d) Aksh is a _____ (trouble) child. He can't stay at one place for too long.

WRITING SKILLS

Q1. Write a debate for or against the motion on the following topics in about 120-150 words.

- a) 'Are fitness apps and gadgets creating unnecessary pressure on people?'
- b) 'Fame on social media is more important than real success.'

Q2. Write a speech on the following topics in about 120-150 words.

- a) 'The Benefits of Learning Multiple Languages'
- b) 'Failure Is the Stepping Stone to Success'

Q3. Complete the following stories in 120-150 words, giving a suitable title to each.

- a) The letter arrived on my birthday, but the words inside brought tears that I hadn't expected and a story I would never forget.....
- b) The old photograph slipped out of the book and landed at my feet. One look at it, and the past I had tried to forget came rushing back.....