Dear Parents,

New Year's Greetings! Your unstinted cooperation stands us in good stead. There are certain points where we would like to seek your cooperation for the safety and security of our own children:-

- * Kindly check your child's uniform before he/she sets out for the school, wearing complete and correct uniform nicely enhance the spirit of self-discipline in the students.
- * Take complete details and documents (copy of license & Aadhar card) of your School Cab Driver (if your ward using private cab). Discuss driver's behavior report from other parents using same cab, make a group of all parents using the same cab and be vigilant to save your ward from any unforeseen happening.
- * Be aware that only Class Teacher is authorized from school to call any Parent or Student, in case of any call from unknown caller posing him or herself calling from school, do not entertain his/her call, inform your Class Teacher immediately.
- * Kindly monitor your child's use of Mobile phones, internet and online games. Excessive gaming and screen time may lead to addiction negatively affect studies and mental health. Keep a vigilant eye on your ward specially while he/she is playing digital games on electronic device as many such games are making youngsters very aggressive & violent and provoking them for dangerous to very dangerous challenges and attempts.
- * Do not allow children to share personal information like photos or location details with strangers on social media or online platforms.
- * Incidents of missing children are being reported in various areas of Delhi, parents are advised to be extra vigilant about their child's whereabouts and ensure they reach home timely. Teach children basic safety rules such as not talking to unknown persons, avoid isolated areas and informing parents/teachers immediately about any suspicious activity. Be aware of your child's friend circle and social interactions to ensure they are in safe and positive company
- * Our teaching staff doing regular and maximum efforts to make aware our students about present situation and its challenges. Please encourage open communication so that children feel comfortable in sharing any problem or concerns with you.
- * Parents should note that it is compulsory to bring HAND OVER CARD at the time of dispersal of primary and pre- primary classes students.

As a parent your cooperation in regard of all the above points is very much solicited.

Thanking you with regards,

M. I.
