1	Read the following passage and answer the questions given below: Behind Meera’s house, there was an old iron gate that had not been opened for many years. It was covered with thick vines and rust. One afternoon, while playing outside, Meera noticed that the gate was slightly open. Feeling curious, she pushed it slowly and walked inside. To her surprise, she saw a lovely garden full of colourful flowers and tall trees. Butterflies were flying around, and there was a small fountain in the middle. However, the garden did not look well cared for. Dry leaves were lying on the ground, and the fountain was not working. Meera decided to take care of the garden. Every day after school, she cleaned the area and watered the plants. With the help of her grandfather, she repaired the fountain. After a few weeks, the garden began to look fresh and beautiful again. The neighbours appreciated Meera’s hard work and dedication. Meera understood that with patience and effort, even something forgotten can become beautiful again. a) The old iron gate was covered with thick _____ and _____. b) Why did Meera enter the garden? i) Her grandfather told her to go. ii) She wanted to hide. iii) She was curious when she saw the gate open. iv) Her friends called her inside. c) Who helped Meera repair the fountain? i) Her neighbour ii) Her teacher iii) Her grandfather iv) Her friend d) Describe the garden when Meera first entered it. e) What steps did Meera take to improve the garden? f) How did the neighbours react to Meera’s work? g) What lesson do you learn from this story? h) Which word from the passage means 'eager'
