Revision Worksheet(1)

SECTION A (READING)

1. Read the above passage and answer the following questions.

Mrs. Brown was taking a train to go to New York. She was standing on the platform at Victoria Station when she saw a stranger for the first time. She felt that she had seen him somewhere before. She took her seat in an empty first-class compartment. When the train began to move, she saw the same stranger in that compartment. Suddenly, she remembered that she had seen the picture of the stranger in the morning newspaper. He was a killer wanted by the police.

She kept an eye on all his movements. To her fright, the man took out a knife. She was relieved when the man peeled an apple with the knife. After sometime, he sharpened a pencil with the knife. When the train stopped, the stranger got down leaving his paper on the seat. There, in the newspaper was the picture of the man. Then Mrs. Brown realized that he was the Police Inspector Thornton of the Scotland Yard. Obviously, Mrs Brown did not read her paper carefully enough.
