

Sarv Sahodaya Art Exhibition 2025-26

THEME:- “Canvas and Clicks”

Students of Classes VI to XI participated in an Art exhibition titled “Canvas and Clicks”, organised by Sarva Sahodaya, Delhi-NCR Schools. The exhibition, based on the Tribal Art Heritage of India, was held on 22 January 2026 at 10:30 a.m. at The Arpana Caur Art Gallery, Siri Fort, New Delhi.

The participating students were Aditi Kumari (VI-B), Devanshi Bishoyi (VI-C), Pranya Rana (VIII-B), Divya Pahujani (IX-B), Beenal Narang (XI-B), and Rasleen Kaur (XI-B).

Their artworks were displayed at the exhibition and were highly appreciated by visitors and art enthusiasts.

The theme of the students’ artwork was Tribal Art, through which they explored and created various traditional Indian folk and tribal art forms. The artworks included styles such as Madhubani, Saura, Bhil, Gond, Pithora, and Khovar, reflecting the richness of India’s cultural and artistic heritage.

The students, along with their Art Teacher Ms. Vandita Kharbanda, visited the exhibition on 22 January 2026 to view the display and gain exposure to diverse tribal art forms. The visit proved to be an enriching learning experience and inspired the students to appreciate traditional art practices.

The exhibition was graced by Sh. Amit Kapoor, Vice President (International Watercolor Society Global), who kindly consented to be the Chief Guest for the event.
