“Heritage is not just a legacy of the past, but a living bridge that shapes our present and inspires our future.”

Dear Parent

India takes pride in its rich cultural legacy and diverse traditions. At our school, we deeply value this diversity and strive to instill in our students a sense of responsibility towards preserving it for future generations. On the occasion of the World Heritage Day, we aim to sensitize students about the same through the following enriching activities:

Date/Day	Class	Activity	Description
16.04.2026 (Thursday)	XI -XII	Heritage Walk (Humanities students)	Visit to the Humayun's Tomb World Heritage Site Museum that showcases the captivating journey through seven centuries of rich heritage.
17.04.2026 (Friday)	III	Intra Class Tearing and Pasting Activity	Students will recreate monument pictures by tearing and pasting colourful papers enhancing creativity.
	IV	Inter House Quiz Competition	Topic: Heritage Sites of India
	V	Inter House E-Monument Competition	Students will create a digital illustration of any Indian heritage monument using MS Paint. (Evaluation criteria: creativity, effective use of tools and colour combination)
	VI-VIII	Lost Heritage Discussion- Inter House Presentation Competition	Students will prepare a presentation on any monument that has been destroyed or damaged, highlighting the need for heritage preservation.
	IX - X	Heritage Debate	Topic: Should tourism at heritage sites be limited to protect them?

We look forward to an enthusiastic participation to make the day a huge success.
