A Glimpse of the Event

Objectives:

- To promote moral values and empathy.
- To develop awareness about good behavior.
- To encourage positive classroom culture.

“A single act of kindness throws out roots in all directions.”

— Amelia Earhart

“The Kindness Tree Project” competition was conducted as part of the Entity Club on 15 April 2026 for the students of class IV. The main objective of this activity was to practice and appreciate acts of kindness in their daily lives and classroom. The activity aimed to develop values like empathy, sharing, and helping others. Students wrote about the acts of kindness they had practiced and those they aim to imbibe in their lives on paper tree cut-outs. They also spoke a few lines explaining their acts of kindness. The activity encouraged students to reflect on their good deeds and understand the importance of being kind in everyday life. It also enhanced their creativity and presentation skills.

The event was a great success as it motivated students to be more considerate and responsible. It also created a positive and supportive classroom environment. Overall, the activity was enjoyable, interactive, and impactful.
