Important Instructions:

- PR1 will be conducted in school, in person, during regular school hours — in the traditional pen-and-paper format.
- Regular classes will continue as per the timetable on all PR1 days, following the completion of the review session.
- There will be no preparatory leave for PR1. Students are encouraged to manage their preparation alongside their regular school routine and to reach out to their subject teachers for support whenever needed.
- Attendance on all PR1 days is mandatory. Leave will be granted only for documented medical reasons. Absence without a valid medical certificate will result in no marks being awarded for the missed assessment.
- There will be no PR1 for Islamic Education. Marks from the first round of IsBT (Islamic Education Benchmark Assessment) will be reflected in the PR1 column on the report card.
