LEGAL STUDIES – XII

Decoding Landmark Judgments in India through Computational Thinking

Learning Objectives- Students will be able to:

- Analyse landmark judgments and their constitutional significance.
- Apply computational thinking skills such as decomposition, pattern recognition, abstraction, algorithmic thinking, and data interpretation.
- Develop legal reasoning and research skills.
- Use ICT tools for data presentation and visualisation.
- Understand the impact of judicial decisions on society and governance

Research and Case Analysis - Select Any ONE Landmark Judgment

Choose one from the following:

1. Kesavananda Bharati v. State of Kerala
2. Maneka Gandhi v. Union of India
3. Vishaka v. State of Rajasthan
4. Justice K.S. Puttaswamy v. Union of India
5. Shayara Bano v. Union of India
6. Navtej Singh Johar v. Union of India

Case Brief Preparation- Prepare a structured case brief covering:

- Facts of the Case
- Legal Issues Involved
- Arguments by Both Parties
- Judgment Delivered
- Constitutional Provisions Involved
- Impact on Indian Society and Democracy

Pattern Recognition- Identify patterns among landmark judgments.

Compare your selected case with at least TWO other judgments on the basis of:

- Fundamental Rights involved
- Judicial Activism
- Role of the Supreme Court

- Social Reform
- Expansion of Rights

Prepare findings in a comparative matrix/chart.

Algorithmic Thinking

Create a flowchart or decision-tree showing: How a Constitutional Case Reaches the Supreme Court. Include:

- Filing of Petition
- High Court/Supreme Court Jurisdiction
- Hearings
- Interpretation of Law
- Final Judgment
- Implementation

Students may use Canva, Lucidchart, PowerPoint SmartArt, Google Drawings

Digital Presentation- Prepare a 5–7 slide presentation including:

- Introduction to the Case
- Key Constitutional Questions
- Timeline of Events
- Computational Analysis
- Impact on Society
- Personal Reflection

Students may include:

- QR Codes
- Hyperlinks
- Infographics
- News Headlines
- Courtroom visuals
