		ENGLISH TALK Topic- Oral Picture Talk – "Pass the Story" Students observe a picture carefully. One student begins by saying one sentence about the picture, and each classmate adds one new sentence to continue the description without repeating any ideas. The activity encourages observation, vocabulary development, listening skills, confidence, and speaking in complete sentences.
		FINANCIAL LITERACY "Needs and Wants" Students are shown picture cards of different items (such as food, books, toys, clothes, and chocolates). They sort the pictures into two groups— Needs and Wants —and explain their choices orally. The activity helps children understand the importance of making wise spending decisions in a fun and interactive way.
