The Lucky Seed

A long time ago, a farmer took a big bag of seeds to sell at the market. Suddenly, his cart's wheel hit a big stone. Bump! One of the seeds fell out of the bag and onto the hot, dry ground.

'I'm scared!' said the seed. 'I need to be safe under the soil.' Just then, a buffalo walked on the seed and pushed it into the ground. 'I'm thirsty!' said the seed. 'I need some water to help me grow.' Just then, it started to rain.

The next morning the seed had a little green shoot. All day it sat in the sun and grew taller and taller. The next day it had its first leaf. This helped it to catch sunlight and grow. That evening a hungry bird tried to eat it, but the seed had roots to help it stay in the ground.

Many years of sunshine and rain passed. The seed became a plant and then the plant became a tree. Today if you see the tree, it is big and strong and now makes seeds of its own.

Moral : Believe in yourself

The Little Plant

In the heart of a seed,
Buried deep so deep.
A dear little plant
lay fast asleep.
'Wake', said the sunshine,
'And creep to the light'.
'Wake,' said the voice
of the raindrops bright.
The little plant heard
And it rose to see,
What a wonderful,
The world might be.

Green, Green Trees

Have you seen,
The green, green trees ?
They clean the air,
and cool the breeze.
Smoke and dust,
And garbage spill,
And dirty water,
makes us ill.
So, let us promise,
to be clean,
To keep our surrounding,
Fresh and green

Little Seed

I plant a little seed
In the ground,
Out comes the sun,
Big and round.
Down come the rain drops,
Soft and slow,
Up comes a flower,
Grow, grow, grow!

The farmer plants the seeds
The farmer plants the seeds
Hi, Ho and Cherry O
The farmer plants the seeds

My Tree

by Lenore Hetrick

Now I will plant this little tree!
Forever and ever it belongs to me.
When it's grown up I will life my eyes
To see my tree against the skies -
A great, tall, living thing I shall see -
And how glad I'll feel that it's my tree!

Value Education - Planting and taking care of plants

Children are naturally curious about their world and enjoy exploring their surroundings.

Childhood is the best time to encourage and nurture early interests in nature.

As children learn about the wonder of seeds, the growth of tender new roots, and all the ways in which plants help us, they become sensitized towards nature and find ways to protect it.

Life Skills - Caring for the Environment

Empathy and caring need to be nurtured through direct involvement in meaningful activities. Involving children in the care of the environment is an excellent way to do this as it helps children develop respect and appreciation for all forms of nature.

Attitude- Not to pluck flowers and leaves

Children must be encouraged to not pluck flowers and leaves for they too, contain life. This will in turn help them to respect the bounties of nature and help maintain an ecological balance.

- The value of planting and taking care of those plants is taught to the students through seed germination activity.
- Watering the plants activity is conducted to inculcate in the students, the need to take care of plants.
- Conversation topic is done in the class - "How to take care of plants and surroundings."

FOR PARENTS

- Read out stories to your daughter to inculcate reading habits in her (kindly use books suitable for her age group).
