A Glimpse of the Event

Objectives:

- * To cultivate students' interest in and love for the Hindi language.
- * To enhance clarity of pronunciation and effective expression through poetry recitation.
- * To encourage students to present confidently on stage.
- * To strengthen memory, language skills, and creative thinking.
- * To develop appreciation and sensitivity towards Hindi literature and poetry.

"Poetry is the expression of emotions that touches the heart and enriches one's personality."

Under the Hindi Lingua Franca Club, the Bal Kavi Competition was organized with the aim of nurturing students' interest in Hindi literature, building self-confidence, and refining their stage presentation skills. The students enthusiastically recited a wide range of inspirational, moral, and nature-based Hindi poems with great confidence and expression.

Each student demonstrated clear pronunciation, appropriate gestures, expressive delivery, and confidence while presenting their chosen poems. The activity significantly contributed to the improvement of students' language skills, memory, stage confidence, and creative expression. It also encouraged them to value the beauty and richness of Hindi poetry.

Parameters / Judgement Criteria:

- * Confidence and Stage Presentation
- * Clear Pronunciation and Correct Hindi
- * Memorization of the Poem
- * Expression and Gestures
- * Adherence to Time Limit
