7.	Description of the activity	ITL Celebrates 80th Independence Day ITL Public School celebrated the 80th Independence Day with patriotic fervour, celebrating the spirit of freedom, inclusion and national pride. The celebrations commenced with the hoisting of the National Flag, followed by the stirring rendition of all five stanzas of the National Song—Vande Mataram. In a remarkable first for the school, students presented a synchronised rendition of the entire National Anthem in Indian Sign Language, giving visual expression to the spirit of patriotism and inclusion while reinforcing the powerful message that patriotism transcends language and ability. Soul-stirring patriotic songs by the school choir further infused the campus with pride and devotion to the nation. Addressing the gathering, the school Principal, Dr. Sudha Acharya, urged students to become responsible and conscientious citizens who use their voices with purpose and integrity. She emphasised the values of belonging, gratitude and responsibility, encouraging students to translate patriotism into meaningful everyday actions and contribute purposefully to India's growth. The Head Boy and Head Girl echoed her message, highlighting the pivotal role of young citizens in shaping a progressive and inclusive nation. A vibrant confluence of cultures unfolded as a “Symphony of the Lesser-Known States of India,” bringing to the forefront the distinctive traditions of Nagaland, Manipur, the Andaman and Nicobar Islands, Goa, Gujarat, Uttar Pradesh, Tamil Nadu and Punjab. Through a captivating tableau, “Celebrating India's Rich Heritage,” students of Classes VI–XII brought alive the languages, folk traditions, music, dance, indigenous crafts, traditional weaves, cuisine, architecture, economic landscape and livelihoods of these regions. From Chang Lo and Manipuri folk traditions to Garba, Goan folk dance, Bhangra and Raslila, the presentation became a vivid amalgamation of identities—celebrating the lesser-explored richness of India’s cultural legacy while beautifully reaffirming the timeless spirit of unity in diversity.
