Unseen Passage & Diary Entry

1 Read the following passage and answer the questions given below:

The Himalayas are home to some of the most beautiful and important national parks in India. Jim Corbett National Park, located in Uttarakhand, was the first national park in India. It was established in 1936 to protect the Bengal tiger. Many tourists visit the park to see tigers, elephants, and other wild animals in their natural habitat. Later, in 1982, the Valley of Flowers National Park was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. This park is famous for its colourful flowers that bloom during the summer and for rare animals like snow leopards and Himalayan bears. In 1983, Great Himalayan National Park was created in Himachal Pradesh. It protects many endangered species and helps scientists study the unique plants and wildlife of the region. These parks not only conserve nature but also teach people the importance of protecting the environment. Himalayan national parks attract nature lovers from all over the world. They help us learn about wildlife, enjoy the beauty of nature, and understand why it is important to save our forests and animals.
