STORY TIME

THE RAMAYANA

(through puppet show and dramatization)

King Dashrath lived in Ayodhya. He had four sons. Ram, Laxman Bharat and Shatrughan.

Ram was married to Sita. They were sent to the exile for 14 years. Laxman also went with them.

In the jungle Ravana, the king of Lanka kidnapped Sita. Hanuman, Ram and Laxman prepared for the battle to save Sita. They fought for ten days with Ravana. Ram killed Ravana.

To mark the victory of good over evil we celebrate Dussehra. Ram came back to Ayodhya with Sita and Laxman.

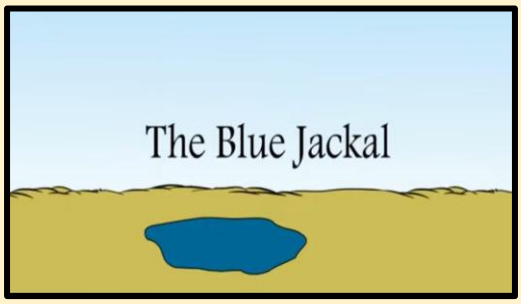

Home coming of Lord Ram and Sita is celebrated as Diwali.

Moral- Victory of good over evil.

VALUE EDUCATION AND ATTITUDE:

Being apologetic when you have done something wrong

When we teach children to apologize, we are teaching them one of the most valuable social skills. Humility does not necessarily mean lacking pride for your accomplishments but refers to having the courage to apologize when you have done something wrong.

LIFE-SKILLS

- INTER-PERSONAL SKILLS- To forgive and to be friendly with all:

Teaching kids to be good friends will help them make lasting friendships. It is important to inculcate such a trait in kids at an early age. Forgiveness is a part of relationships.

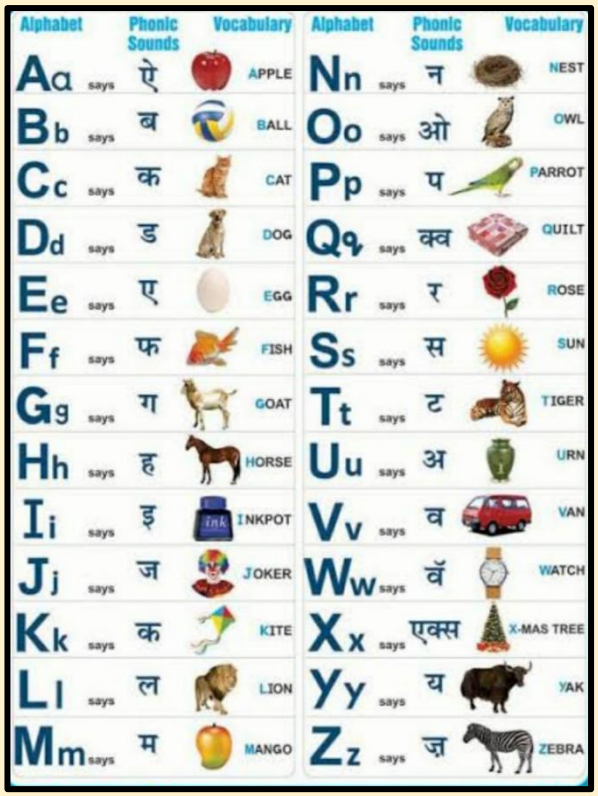

Teaching children to forgive and forget past things and move on can make it easier to fuel a healthier mindset. Like all other aspects of moral development, forgiveness and friendliness requires coaching and instructing from both parents and teachers.

For example: Telling them about the qualities of good friends like helping each other when in need, taking care of each other etc.
