HEADMISTRESS'S DESK

Respected Parents, Beloved Students, and Esteemed Readers

Every school has classrooms, corridors, assemblies and activities. But what truly makes a school is the feeling it creates—the sense of belonging, the relationships it nurtures and the values it lives by.
As I look back at these first six months of our journey, I feel immense pride—not only in what we have accomplished, but in who we are becoming together as a Xavierian community.

For me, the most beautiful part of being a Headmistress is being among children. I believe children should never feel that the Headmistress is someone they can only approach when something goes wrong. I want them to feel comfortable walking up to me, sharing their little stories, asking questions, expressing their concerns, telling me about something they are excited about—or simply saying, "Ma'am, I wanted to tell you something."
Those small conversations matter. A child who feels heard learns to express. A child who feels respected learns to respect. And a child who feels valued learns to value others.
I want our children to grow into confident, expressive and compassionate individuals—children who can speak their minds, listen to others, disagree respectfully, take responsibility for their choices and, most importantly, remain kind. We celebrate their achievements, but we also celebrate their courage to try, their willingness to learn from mistakes and their ability to stand by one another.
Our partnership with parents is equally precious. A child flourishes when home and school walk together. I deeply value the trust, conversations and support we receive from our parent community. We may sometimes have different perspectives, but our purpose remains the same—to give every child the security, opportunities and encouragement to become the best version of themselves.
These six months have also been about building a culture—one that is rooted in respect, responsibility, empathy, discipline, integrity and joy in learning. Culture is not created through words displayed on walls; it is created through the everyday choices we make, the way we speak to one another, the way we treat our classrooms, the way we respond when someone needs help and the standards we choose to uphold even when nobody is watching.
I am grateful to our teachers and every member of the Xavier's family who brings this culture to life each day. Their commitment, patience and belief in our children are the foundation on which we continue to grow.
And to my dear students, I want you to remember this: your school is not only a place you come to learn; it is a place where you belong. Your ideas matter. Your voice matters. Your individuality matters. Never be afraid to ask, to wonder, to create, to express and to dream.
As we bring you the first volume of X-Mag, these pages are not merely a record of events. They are a reflection of our first six months—the laughter, learning, friendships, challenges, achievements and countless little moments that have made this journey special.
We have begun beautifully, but this is only the beginning.
There is much more to learn, much more to create and many more milestones to celebrate.
Let us continue to grow together—with curiosity in our minds, kindness in our hearts and the Xavierian spirit in all that we do.

With pride, warmth and a commitment to excellence

FROM THE

COORDINATOR'S DESK

"Some journeys are measured not by the distance travelled, but by the memories created, the lives touched, and the growth witnessed along the way."

Dear Esteemed Members of the Xavier's Family,

As I look back at the years gone by, I am filled with a deep sense of gratitude and pride. My association with St. Xavier's High School has been a journey that began at its very inception. To have been a part of the school from its early days and to witness it grow, evolve and blossom into the vibrant institution it is today has been a truly enriching experience.

I still remember the early days—the dreams we nurtured, the foundations we carefully laid, the challenges we encountered and the countless little milestones that gradually shaped the school. What began as a vision slowly transformed into a living, breathing community of learners, educators and families. Today, when I look around, I see not merely a school, but a beautiful journey of growth, perseverance, learning and togetherness.

Over the years, the school has grown not only in its infrastructure and achievements, but also in its vision and spirit. With every passing year, we have embraced new ideas, explored newer avenues of learning and provided our students with opportunities to discover their strengths express themselves and develop into confident individuals. Yet, amidst all the change and progress, our commitment to nurturing values, character, compassion and curiosity has remained constant.

The most beautiful part of this journey has been watching our children grow. The little ones who once walked into the school with hesitant smiles and curious eyes have gone on to become confident performers, thoughtful learners, responsible leaders and compassionate human beings. Their achievements, however big or small, have been reminders of why education is so much more than academics. It is about shaping minds, strengthening character and preparing young people to face the world with confidence and kindness.

As I reflect upon my years at Xavier's, I realise that I have not simply witnessed the growth of a school—I have been privileged to grow along with it. Every academic year has brought new experiences, new challenges, new learning and countless memories that will always remain close to my heart.

Today, as we celebrate how far we have come, we also look ahead with renewed enthusiasm. The world around us is changing rapidly, and education must continue to evolve with it. Our endeavour will always be to create an environment where every child feels valued, every talent finds a platform, every question is welcomed and every dream is given the courage to take flight. The pages of this magazine beautifully capture glimpses of our journey of the first 6 months for the session 2026-27 — the achievements, celebrations, creativity, learning and countless moments that make Xavier's special. As you turn these pages, I hope you will see not just events and accomplishments, but the heart and soul of our school.

With pride, gratitude and hope for the future,

Ms. Shivani Mehra

यादों की सुनहरी पोटली

दिल की पोटली में बंद कर कुछ सुनहरी यादें।
कभी हँसाती, कभी रुलाती है ये पुरानी यादें।
हर बीते हुए कल को आज में जिंदा रखती है ये यादें।
हर कल को खुशी से जीने की हिम्मत देती है ये यादें।
अंत में बस
यादें रह जाती है याद करने के लिए
और वक्त सब लेकर गुज़र जाता है।

यादों के पास एक पोटली है,
छोटी सी, सुनहरी - निराली है।
टुन-टुन बजती छम-छम चलती,
जैसी धूप की किरण उछलती।
खोल के देखो क्या है अंदर?
लाल-पीली गाड़ियाँ,
और एक सीपी, एक पंख मोर का,
और पत्थर के टुकड़े चार।
यादों का ये है खज़ाना,
इसमें बंद है एक ज़माना।
कभी ये देती हँसी के लड्डू,
कभी सपनों के मीठे गट्टू।
यादें हँसी, तुम भी हँसो
पोटली संग सपने बुनो।
सुनहरी पोटली नहीं है छोटी,
उसमें बंद है दुनिया मोटी।

मेरे पास यादों की सुनहरी पोटली है,
जिसमें बचपन की बातें हैं।
माँ की मीठी लोरी, पापा का प्यार,
दादी की कहानी और नानी का दुलार है।
दोस्तों संग खेल के पल हैं,
स्कूल की पहली घंटी और पहली किताब है।
जन्मदिन की खुशियाँ रहती हैं,
छुट्टियों की यादें हैं।
जब मैं उदास होता हूँ,
पोटली खोलता हूँ।
पुरानी यादें देखकर मुस्कुराता हूँ,
मन खुशियों से भर जाता है।
ये यादें अनमोल हैं,
इनसे बचपन सुंदर बनता है।
मैं सुनहरी पोटली को
दिल के पास रखूँगा।
हर पल प्यार से सँभालूँगा।
मेरी यादें दुनिया हैं,
जो मुझे खुश रखती हैं।

एक पोटली है,

और छुट्टियों के मेल।
स्कूल की पहली प्यारी दोस्ती,
मेरा पहला इनाम,
जन्मदिन के गुब्बारे,
और केक का मीठा काम!
जब भी मन थोड़ा उदास हो,
पोटली खोलूँ मैं।
अपनी सारी प्यारी यादें,
फिर से जी लूँ मैं।

IF I COULD INVENT SOMETHING NEW...

Hi everyone today I am going to talk about the topic if I could invent something new. If I could invent something I would invent a robot that can do everything like play indoor games, help in doing my homework, helping in my school projects and more. It would also be able to respond to commands if I call it Robo. It can also play outside with me and if it starts raining, I can wear my raincoat and the robot will be waterproof so no worries. So yeah, this was what I could invent with my imagination.

Thank you for your time and attention.

ADVIKA GARG

If I could invent anything, I would invent a Pocket-Sized World!

It would be a tiny world that I could carry in my pocket. Inside it, there would be mountains, oceans, forests, and even little houses. I could visit it whenever I feel bored. I could make the sun rise, bring snow in summer, or make flowers sing!

My pocket world would also have tiny, friendly dragons that tell funny stories. At night, I could close the lid and let everyone sleep.

I would call my invention Wonder-in-My-Pocket. It would be like carrying a whole magical universe wherever I go!

KAVIN MALIK

I will invent a robot who will teach poor children. I will name him Preet. He will go to poor kids and teach them. He will have books and interesting videos. He will not ask for money. He will make studies fun so that kids love to study. He will never scold or hit the kids. He will love, care and support the kids. He will have the same rules for everyone. He will make sure everyone learns everything. If someone does not understand, he will help till he learns. He will help them to become successful when they grow up.

Saarathi – Our Helping Robot My robot would help people with their daily work. It could clean the house, arrange books, water plants and even pack my school bag. It would also help old people by carrying things and reminding them to take their medicines on time. It could talk, understand our feelings and make us laugh when we are sad. My robot would run on solar energy, so it would not cause pollution. It would also have a special button to call an ambulance or the fire brigade during an emergency. I would call my invention "Saarathi" to make safer and happier world.

It was splendid to witness the Annual Day at the St. Xavier's School, Sec-81 yet again.
In all honesty, the production quality was very high.
Lights, sound, music, costumes, prop all transported us efficiently to the center of the story.
The story around Viksit Bharat itself was very relatable and done brilliantly by the bright little stars of the school.
The effort that was put in by the teachers and students themselves for weeks made it flawless and in fact effortless.
And as always the energy of the moment engulfed us in by the end of the show.
