Dear Parents,

Greetings!

As you are aware that subject selection is a very important decision in the life of a student in class XI. This decision of subject selection must be based on information, exposure and passion. Students are observed and assessed continuously so that they can select the right stream after class X. For this purpose, it is important to consider the marks of class VIII, IX & X.

The given criteria will be strictly followed by the school for allotment of stream of study in class XI.

SCIENCE STREAM **

Students securing 75% and above marks in English, Mathematics and Science according to criteria given below.

COMMERCE STREAM

Students securing 75% and above marks in English, Mathematics and Social Science according to the criteria given below.

HUMANITIES STREAM

Students securing 75% and above marks in English and Social Science, according to the criteria given below. If you wish to opt for Mathematics then 75% in Mathematics according to the criteria given below would be applicable.

Calculation format for provisional admission in XI

Class VIII (10%)		Class IX (20%)		Class X (70%)		Stream Allotment Out of
Term-I 5%	Term-II 5%	Term-I 10%	Term-II 10%	Term-I 30%	Pre-Board (Best out of pre-boards) 40%	100%

*Students who have cleared advance in both Science and Mathematics will have an advantage during stream allocation.

Attitude, Regularity and self-discipline are the key to success.

With best wishes,

Principal
