FROM THE TRUSTEE'S DESK,

Dear Students,

“Education is not the learning of facts, but the training of the mind to think.”

As you navigate your way through the site discovering what we have to offer, you will find answers to the many preliminary questions you may have about our school, our academic programme and student life.

As the trustee of the school, I feel honoured and privileged to be part of Arwachin World School where every stakeholder is a learner and every day is an opportunity to learn and discover. We look at ourselves as community of learners, where everyone learns including our teachers, parents and staff.

I believe in upholding high standards with an absolute commitment to strive to understand and improve the educational process using team strategies, while wholly centering on student achievement.

Our staff fruitfully employ two diverse strategies that are of Love and Logic to foster a positive learning environment for all our students. Love and Logic may seem like two contrasting forces. While love help nurture trusting relationships, where students feel respected, appreciated, and loved by the teachers, logic helps develop in students personal responsibility, self control, good decision making skills self confidence and character building with high moral values.

Your child learning involves and revolves around an effective partnership between home and school. We know the stronger the partnership is the more your child will benefit.

Whilst we know that the information here will give you answers to some of your questions, we also know that learning is social, and in this context we encourage you to come and speak to us in person for a more detailed perspective. I look forward to working with you as we help create a school where parents are welcome at anytime, students are engaged in meaningful learning and the staff members are valued and appreciated for their efforts.

Dr. Urmilla Sharma
(Trustee of Arwachin World School)

FROM THE TRUSTEE'S DESK,

Dear students,

"The function of education is to teach one to think intensively and to think critically. Intelligence plus character that is the goal of true education ."

-Martin Luther King Jr.

The world of 21st century is changing at an accelerated scale . It is a challenge for educator to cope with changing world order and prepare the students for the future. It has rightly been said by Margaret mead that "Children needs to be taught how to think, not what to think." Arwachin World School has always tried to inculcate creativity, critical thinking, innovation divergent thinking along with proper values of life for its students. The school conduct an array of activities throughout the years bringing out all these skill among children.

This addition of school magazine "Sangharsh" gives space to imagination and unlocks the thoughts and value of children and staff. It unfold a wide spectrum of creative skills which includes not only writing and designing but also editing the magazine.

The creativity in children found "Sangharsh" only because of strenuous efforts of the editorial board and the active participation of students, needless to say the committed and supportive management ,dedicated and caring staff, cooperative parents who worked in the backdrop to bring out the best in children .

I wish you all the best for your present and future endeavors!!

FROM THE MANAGER'S DESK,

Dear Readers,

Artificial intelligence

Artificial intelligence is a technology that is transforming every walk of life in today's world. Whether to get driving directions or get music or movie recommendations, AI has improved and changed the way we live. All this has become possible only due to the development and advancement in the field of AI. The main goals of artificial intelligence are copy human intelligence, carry out knowledge-intensive tasks, learn new things by itself and build machines which can perform tasks that require human intelligence such as: playing chess, plan and carry out surgical operations and driving a car in traffic. With artificial intelligence, social networking companies analyze huge data to find out what is trending and other related patterns which help them understand users behaviour and display the content of their interest.

A POEM ON TEAM SPIRIT

Teamwork is the best work
When you engross the spirit of workmanship
When you work for the team
Irrespective of your selfish needs
You realize the importance of how happy
You have been
Through this single act of changing priorities
When you priorities the profit over happiness, of others.
It is then you realize the real happiness is
In being with others
Getting along with your colleagues
Is something good for your well-being
Because you stay away from negative judgments
And work together as a force.

MY WORLD

Everyone in this whole world has a world view. There is no one in this world who is without a world view. Having a world view means to have a certain perspective on the world in which we live our lives. The way I live my life is through God. I have faith and belief that God is our savior for all of our sins. God is the creator of all things and we are living in his glory. I believe that the world is a beautiful place and I love it. There is so much to see and experience, and I feel lucky to be alive in it. I enjoy spending time with family, friends, and loved ones, and exploring new places. I believe that the world is constantly changing, which is both exciting and frustrating at times. However, I am grateful for all of the experiences that have brought me to this point in my life. The world is a beautiful place for about 7 billion people. All the people are fortunate to have access to resources and a place where they can live peacefully. Our world is filled with amazing people who can speak different languages, live in different places, and follow different traditions. The world consists of amazing people along with natural resources, flora, and fauna. These natural resources include mountains, rivers, oceans, forests, hills, etc. We live in a world which keeps experiencing new changes with the growing population. People around the world experience social and emotional changes.

SAVE WATER – SAVE LIFE

Water, water, everywhere,
To wash my hands and wash my hair.
It's nice to drink it by the pool,
Slurp it, sip it, nice and cool!
It comes from clouds don't you know,
Falls in rain and also snow.
Keep it clean or you will be,
Sick as sick, as sick can be!
We are lucky here at school,
To have clean water to keep us cool.
Think of others when you get paid,
And give a bit to Water Aid!

Festivals around the corner

Festivals are around the corner,
We celebrate and to blend in with joy together.

Nine nights of goddess Durga full of dance and song,
People worship her with flowers and prayers long.
Erasing the traces of sins, it's the virtue that finally wins,
Challenging the evil around, the journey of maa durga begins.

Then Dussehra celebrates the victory of good over evil,
Lord Rama killed Ravana and helped all the people.
Dussehra teaches us the difference between the wrong and right,
It teaches us that darkness will always turn into light.

Now, we are waiting for Diwali with the colors of rangoli,
Spent fourteen years in exile Lord Rama came to the devotee.
The fragrance of flowers, the sound of crackers,
Festivals are around the corner.

EDUCATION IS FOR ALL

Our constitution maker Dr BR Ambedkar has rightly said that education is the milk of gress, the one who drinks it, can not stay without roaring. He stressed upon the Universalisation of Primary Education which is the basis for all-round national progress and his aspirations are reflected through Article 45 of the constitution which provides for 'Education for All'.

The "Education for All" is a global commitment to provide quality basic education for all children, youth and adults. The movement was launched at the World Conference on Education for All in 1990 by UNESCO, UNDP, UNFPA, UNICEF and the World Bank. Article 26 of the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights states that "Everyone has the right to education."

When education is free, more people have access to it. This means that more people can improve their lives by learning new skills and getting better jobs. In addition, free education helps to level the playing field. It gives everyone an opportunity to improve their lives, regardless of their socioeconomic status.

Free and compulsory education to all children up to the age of fourteen is a constitutional commitment in India. In pursuance thereof successive governments have introduced programme like Sarv Shiksha Abhiyan in year 2001. The Parliament of India had passed the Right to Education Act in 2009 through which education has become a fundamental right under Article 21A of all children of the age group 6-14 years. Further, Samagra Shiksha Abhiyan was launched which provided the holistic approach to education.

Under the Union Budget, 2018-19, Government of India has proposed to treat school education holistically without segmentation from pre-nursery to Class 12. Samagra Shiksha - an overarching programme for the school education sector extending from pre-school to class 12 has been, therefore, prepared with the broader goal of improving school effectiveness measured in terms of equal opportunities for schooling and equitable learning outcomes. New Education Policy-2020 of the government and its continuance envisions the objective of education for all.

To sum up, for "Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas" the vision of Dr. Ambedkar are reiterated hereinunder:

"Be educated, be agitated, be organized, be confident, never give up, these are the five principles of our life"

Internet is a boon or bane

The internet is a powerful tool that has significantly impacted our lives. Whether it is a boon or a bane depends on how we use it.

On one hand, the internet is undoubtedly a boon. It has revolutionized the way we access information. Students can now research and learn from a vast array of online resources, making it an invaluable educational tool. It has also made communication more accessible, connecting people across the globe. Social media platforms enable us to stay in touch with friends and family, fostering relationships even at a distance. Additionally, the internet has created countless job opportunities and has become a vital tool for businesses, helping them reach a global audience.

However, the internet also has its drawbacks, making it a potential bane. The ease of access to information can be a double-edged sword. While it provides valuable knowledge, it can also expose children to inappropriate content. Cyberbullying and online harassment have become prevalent issues, causing emotional distress to individuals. Privacy concerns are another downside, as our personal data is often collected and used without our consent. Moreover, excessive screen time can lead to health problems, such as eye strain and sedentary lifestyles.

In conclusion, the internet can be a boon or a bane, depending on how it is used. It offers countless benefits, from education to communication and business opportunities. However, it also presents risks, such as exposure to harmful content and privacy concerns. It is essential for individuals, especially children, to use the internet responsibly and be aware of the potential dangers it poses. When used wisely, the internet can be a valuable asset, but when abused, it can become a significant detriment to our lives.

Each one – teach one

Children's lives can be improved by offering them a functional education that gives them the reading and writing abilities to assist them deal with basic necessities.

Individual small acts have a tremendously powerful cumulative effect that can help close education gaps left by traditional schools. Most youngsters from disadvantaged backgrounds don't attend school or do so with insufficiently trained teachers. Finances in low-income households, which scarcely manage to provide them with food and shelter, are their main source of restriction. If we are willing to teach them, children from rickshaw drivers, labourers, maids, and other social groups who lack access to high-quality education can profit.

The quality of life for poor children could significantly improve if the wealthy sections of society voluntarily step forward to support this noble cause. A person can be taught or educated, even if they are an adult who is still illiterate due to poverty and relies on manual work to support themselves. By doing so, they will be better able to understand their rights and avoid being taken advantage of or duped by society's elite. Mothers who are also literate or educated can have a positive impact on the lives of the kids they raise.

"Each One Teach One" encourages the educated class to recognize their moral and social obligation to educate at least one illiterate person, which makes a significant contribution to society. Children of all classes, including those from low-income families, must be taught if we want them to be read, aware of their fundamental health and hygiene, and grow up as educated citizens. There are a few advantages to this slogan. The first is that it gets more people reading. This is something that is important for the development of youth, and anything that encourages reading is beneficial. Furthermore, it helps young people learn about literary devices and how to analyse a work from an objective perspective.

Team Spirit – Inspiration for all

Team Spirit means working together as a group to achieve a mutual goal. Together we can achieve more. We listen to each other, support each other, and share our ideas and knowledge. When one works in a team, the pressure is distributed, and the achievement of success seems easier. Encouraging each other in a team gives additional strength to achieve our goal. Teams in good spirits are confident and can handle every situation without any problem because they support each other, and they make mistakes but they also learn from their mistakes and try to improve themselves.

Along with team spirit, a team should also do teamwork that is the common effort to complete a task in an efficient way. Co-operation is an important part of teamwork. No goal can be achieved without the help of our team members. We can be self-dependent but only to an extent. Then there comes a stage when we need the help of our team members.

Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi was a self – dependent person, but he needed the help of Indians for his non-cooperation movement and satyagraha. Support and trust are some more aspects of teamwork. If the team members do not trust or support each other, then teamwork would not be possible. To make teamwork successful, the team members must support and trust each other. Team members should trust each other and support each other's ideas. With teamwork, every team can achieve their goal and dream.

My Life- My Biography

My name is Mishika Raheja, I am a 9 year old and my world is filled with colours, music, and the unbridled joy of dancing through life. My parents, Manas and Jyoti Raheja, along with my younger brother, Advik, and my beloved grandma, Anita Raheja, are the pillars of my universe, constantly encouraging me to chase my dreams. It's my passions and aspirations that truly define me.

Dancing is my ultimate passion. I also play the Casio. I make up tunes that talk about how I feel inside. When I'm not moving to the beat or playing my tunes, I paint. With my magic brush, I make a world full of amazing things. I draw everything I love.

School is where I get to show my competitive side. I'm in the top three in my class. But what really makes me excited is the competitions! I was so happy when I got third place in that singing competition! Oh, and there was this other time when I got the third rank in the inter-school dance competition for Arwachin World School. Those were some amazing moments!

But you know what my biggest dream is? I want to be a pilot! I want to fly way up high in the sky, see new places, and meet new people. I'm working really hard for that dream. I want to touch the clouds someday!

Life is like a big adventure, and I want to live every moment. With my love for dancing, music, and painting, and my big dream of flying, I know I can do anything! My family is always cheering me on, and that's all I need to reach for the stars.

PARENT'S REVIEW: ARWACHIN WORLD SCHOOL

Review on the following salient points:-

ACADEMICS: It is incumbent upon a teacher to nurture a cohesive bonding with her/his students wherein each and every student ought to pursue interest oriented, inquisitive and interactive approach in the classroom and beyond. In true sense, the age old our Guru-Shishya tradition is still unparalleled. No doubt, the impartial, but carrot and stick approach is warranted. To an extent, the intent and effort of the Principal, teachers and support staff is commendable.

Our experience at Arwachin has been great. The Teachers are truly invested in my children's education and their growth as learners.

There are many more extra curricular activities, enabling my children to gain confidence in their learning as well as other abilities.

It is clear that our child's literacy and numeracy skills have developed considerably while under your care. Thank you for helping her to develop the skills and confidence that she will carry forward into the next school year.

Our child comes home every day telling us stories about how fun it is to be in your classroom. Your play-based learning approach is amazing.

The administration is open minded and thinks outside the box to make Arwachin a successful educational experience.

I am the Parent of my children - my daughter Shivanshi Bhatt of class III and my younger son Shivansh Bhatt who are studying in class Pre School. I consider it my privilege for having put both my children in your esteemed Institution Arwachin World School, Bhopur, Ghazipur.

My daughter Shivanshi Bhatt is meticulously following her teachers' instructions and tries her best to cope with her studies in the class.

But the real gem is my younger son Shivansh Bhatt who is a put student of his class teacher Mrs Vineta Gupta. She pays attention to each and every child in her class. She encourages children to develop proper language and writing skills. She teaches moral values and good manners to students. Despite of my son's relentless mischief, Mrs Vineta Gupta hampers him and keeps a close watch on all his mischiefs. She motivates him in studies and extra-curricular activities all the time.

I convey my heartfelt thanks to your esteemed Institute for moulding its students to become responsible citizens of future India.

This little note is a way to show our gratitude to all the hard work and hardships the teachers have been through. Just a "Thank You" won't be enough for all the efforts that you have all put through.

The Arwachin World School is putting up their sincere efforts to bring out the best in the Children that include extra-curricular activities and sports along with academics. The exposure to the outside world and platform given to the children to improve their skills is really boosting up their confidence.
