

Gold Medal in the Haryana School State Boxing Championship

We are thrilled to share that Jatin Nain, a Class 10 student at DPS Maruti Kunj, has won the Gold Medal in the Haryana School State Boxing Championship held in Fatehabad. This impressive victory has earned him a spot in the upcoming School National Games, where he will proudly represent both his school and state.

Jatin's dedication, strength, and skill in boxing have brought honor to DPS Maruti Kunj, and his accomplishment stands as an inspiration to all his peers. We congratulate Jatin on this outstanding achievement and wish him all the best as he prepares for the School National Games!
