

MORAL VALUES

Moreover,

These days we use have forgotten our *moral values. Why not incorporate them into our daily routine? for instance ,greet everyone with the good morning when you wake up join your hand and say "namaste". Touch the feet of elders and seek their blessings. During holidays assist your parents with household chords. These small actions will keep us connected to a roots. This is the primary objective of our school.

So ,we request all parents to help as fulfill this mission. During these holidays, encourage your children to practice these things children's should visit our temple with their parents or grandparents at least once a week.
