

Report On The Visit To New Delhi World Book Fair 2025

The Air Force School organized a one-day visit to the New Delhi World Book Fair 2025, held at the Bharat Mandapam on 1st February 2025. The inauguration ceremony of the fair was graced by the Hon'ble President of India, Smt. Droupadi Murmu , who officially inaugurated the event on the same day. The purpose of this visit was to introduce students to the world of books and to provide them with an enriching experience at the event. A total of 60 students participated in the visit, accompanied by 8 teachers.

The students visited the Children's Pavilion where they had the opportunity to be a part of an exciting storytelling session. Following the story, the students were engaged in another creative activity where they drew pictures based on the narrative they had just heard. After the storytelling and drawing activities, the students were given refreshments as they were getting ready to leave.

The students gained valuable exposure to literature and storytelling, fostering their love for reading and creativity. The visit provided them with the opportunity to engage in interactive sessions, further enriching their understanding of literature. The aim of the visit was to introduce students to the world of books and inspire them to develop a deeper appreciation for reading and creativity. The students enjoyed the entire programme and the purpose of visiting the New Delhi World Book Fair 2025 was successful.
