

Report on Social Science Week (EBSB Activity)

Delhi Public School Maruti Kunj's Social Science Department celebrated Social Science Week from 21 October 2024 to 25 October 2024 under the Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat (EBSB) initiative. A series of engaging activities were conducted for classes ranging from VI to XII. 'Ink Your Ideas Contest', 'Brain Buzzer', Cartography Challenge, Creative Chronicle Contest, Harvest the Rain, Water Wise, and Nature Nurture Drive were successfully carried out with zeal and splendour. Students created projects that showcased various cultures, languages, and traditions of the state fondly known as the 'Jewel of India', Manipur, highlighting how each contributes to a shared national identity. The event beautifully captured the essence of unity in diversity and was an enriching experience for all participants.
